Newmarket can be third time lucky for Altius

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Altius is expected to open his account at the third time of asking in the CopyBet For Champions League Profit Boosts Novice Stakes at Newmarket. The Frankel colt was all the rage for his Sandown debut last month, suggesting he had been showing Charlie Appleby plenty at home, but had to make do with minor honours in third place. He was odds-on for a second time here two and a half weeks ago and while his supporters were ultimately left counting their losses, there was not a lot wrong with his performance in finishing a half-length second to Kicking Bear, who set steady fractions out in front and got the run of the race.

While Altius might not be among the top rank of juveniles at Moulton Paddocks, he clearly has a decent level of ability and can reward those who keep the faith. Girl Scout looks well placed to complete her hat-trick for Karl Burke in the British Stallion Studs EBF Future Stayers Nursery Handicap. The Perfect Power filly ran with credit on her first two starts, including a third place finish behind subsequent Group Two winner Rogue Passion at Carlisle. It was therefore no surprise to see her winning at Haydock, albeit narrowly, in early September, and she proved much better than her opening handicap mark of 76 when following up at the Merseyside venue three weeks later.

The handicapper has handed her a 6lb rise, but she clearly handles cut in the ground and appears to be on a steep upward curve. Reflect On Glory is another interesting contender for Burke and stable jockey Clifford Lee in the CopyBet Overnight Best Odds Guaranteed Nursery Handicap. The Ripon novice winner disappointed in soft ground at Haydock on his penultimate start, but is better judged on his latest effort when a two-length third on his handicap debut at Pontefract. Running off the same mark of 82 and stepping back up to seven furlongs, he could yet have more to give assuming conditions do not turn drastically.

Olly Murphy has hit the ground running this autumn and will have high hopes for Scorpio Rising in the FBC Manby Bowdler "Chasing Excellence" Beginners' Chase at Worcester. The six-year-old won his first four starts of last season over hurdles, including the EBF Final at Sandown. He was slightly disappointing when stepped up to Grade One level at Aintree in April, but that was a big step up in grade and came at the end of a long season. Following just seven lifetime starts Scorpio Rising remains an exciting prospect and with Murphy firing on all cylinders, this grey can make a winning start to his career over fences. Jumping fare also comes from Fontwell, where Cool Customer is of interest in the opening Bet Clever BetGoodwin Maiden Hurdle. The five-year-old was placed on his first two bumper starts before deservedly getting his head in front at Chepstow in March. Fergal O'Brien has not run many of his winter horses yet, but Cool Customer looks a smart prospect ahead of his hurdling bow.
