Park life calling for Ffos Las backers
By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Old Park Star is expected to emerge victorious in what is a fascinating midweek treat for racegoers to enjoy at Ffos Las. Few would have expected the first, second and fourth from the Supreme Novices' Hurdle to reoppose on their respective fencing debuts in deepest Wales, but the lack of recent rain in large parts of the country has led to a dearth of suitable opportunities. Old Park Star was due to appear at Cheltenham over the weekend, but with the Prestbury Park turf deemed unsuitably quick Nicky Henderson has rerouted his unbeaten star to the Golwg Gwendraeth Beginners' Chase, in which he is set to renew rivalry with Sober Glory and Baron Noir. Sober Glory was only a length and a half behind the Seven Barrows ace when filling the runner-up spot at the Cheltenham Festival, while Baron Noir was beaten seven and a half lengths in total. Only time will tell how that form will translate to the larger obstacles, but Old Park Star does seem to have the X-factor and can again stamp his class. Sober Glory's connections are fancied to find the target with Quickkick in division two of the Dandara Maiden Hurdle. The Newton Abbot bumper winner was given his hurdling introduction at this venue four weeks ago and there was not much wrong with his performance in finishing a half-length second to Spanish Stroll and beating the odds-on favourite Mourne Crystal. The latter was not far away at Cheltenham on Sunday, giving the form some credibility, and Quickkick is expected to prove hard to beat at the second time of asking. Seasett has to be of interest in the Welsh Cottage Christmas Cakes Handicap Chase. The eight-year-old has had spells with a variety of different trainers over the course of his career and is now with Mickey Bowen, for whom he made a promising stable debut when second at Hexham during the summer. Having finished lame he has not been seen on the racecourse since, but interestingly he has had a wind operation and is fitted with cheekpieces for the first time on his return. He is lightly-raced over fences following just two previous starts and is rated 9lb lower than he is over hurdles. With the trainer's champion jockey brother Sean in the plate, Seasett can strike gold. Derryhassen Paddy is the undoubted star on show at Hexham. The seven-year-old has only made it to the track twice since picking up the bronze medal in the Albert Bartlett Novices' Hurdle at the 2025 Cheltenham Festival, chasing home the high-class Sixmilebridge on his sole start of last season and making late gains to place third on his return from 11 months off the track at Cheltenham in October. He was another to sidestep a planned outing at Cheltenham on account of the ground and he should outclass his rivals in the Weatherbys And Birdie Calendars 'Chasing Excellence' Beginners' Chase in Northumberland. It is not too difficult to make a case for Lady Blanche on the all-weather at Kempton. The runaway Bath winner came up short when stepped up to Listed class for the Marygate at York in May, but she now steps into handicap company for the first time off what looks a workable mark of 80 in the Unibet 40,000+ Live Streamed Events Nursery.
