ENCHANT CAN MAKE WINNING COMEBACK

AT DONCASTER

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Enchant can pick up where she left off on her return from nearly a year on the sidelines in the Yorkshire Air Ambulance EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes at Doncaster. A #300,000 breeze-up purchase, the daughter of Wootton Bassett gave the Wathnan Racing team a small but immediate return on their investment when making a successful start to her career for trainer Karl Burke at Pontefract 12 months ago. While she beat only two rivals in West Yorkshire, the form is not too shabby, with the runner-up Bleep Test now rated 81 while the third home American Flight has won three times since, albeit at a lowly level. Enchant has presumably had her issues given she has not been seen on a racecourse since, but she remains a filly of significant potential. Nochebuena looks the most likely winner of the Turn The Page And Read 'Confined' Novice Stakes. As a daughter of owner-breeder Kirsten Rausing's French Derby-winning sire Study Of Man, seven furlongs was always likely to be on the sharp side for this three-year-old on her Kempton debut in December and so it proved, but there were definite signs of promise on her fourth-place finish. She was stepped up to a mile and a quarter on her reappearance at Haydock last month and consequently performed even better, making much of the running before being mowed down late and narrowly beaten by the odds-on favourite Fashion's Fancy. Nochebuena now gets the chance to test her mettle over a mile and a half and with the extra distance expected to suit, she looks well placed to make it third time lucky on Town Moor. Alpha Capture has been running well in defeat since joining Roger Fell and can claim a deserved victory in division one of the Grace And Dotty Fedoras And Feathers Handicap. The son of Cotai Glory was rated as high as 103 after winning a Listed race for William Haggas as a two-year-old, but after losing his way slightly he moved to Ireland to join Willie Mullins, for whom he won once and was placed twice in eight attempts. He changed hands for the bargain basement price of E9,000 last November and finished third on his first two starts for Fell over a mile, after which he was probably given a bit too much to do over seven furlongs at Thirsk. Alpha Capture performed better under a more prominent ride over six furlongs at Pontefract a couple of weeks ago, beaten little over a length, and another bold bid is anticipated as he drops down a grade and steps back up a furlong under Kevin Stott. Wild Violet has shown enough in her first two races to suggest a race like the iwrightsongs.com Fillies' Novice Stakes at Salisbury should be within her compass. Michael Bell's youngster was a distant third on her introduction at Newmarket's Guineas meeting, but the winner Earth Shot has proved herself to be well above average by going close in a Listed race next time. Wild Violet was then switched to the all-weather at Wolverhampton, where she was again unfortunate to bump into a useful opponent in the form of previous winner She Commands and stepping up slightly in trip on her return to the grass, she has a good opportunity to break her duck. Taritino won off a mark of 73 at Salisbury a couple of years ago and although he has not added to his tally on the Flat since, he has won twice over hurdles this year and was beaten only a head last time out at Bath. He lines up in the Molson Coors Handicap off 67 and the booking of Billy Loughnane for the ride appears a statement of intent.
