PRINCESS HONEY BEE LOOKS SWEET AT KEMPTON

By Molly Hunter, PA

Princess Honey Bee may be worth keeping an eye on in the Unibet Zero% Mission Confined EBF Restricted Maiden Fillies Stakes over a mile at Kempton. The Aclaim filly is trained by Eve Johnson Houghton for Nick Bradley Racing and made her debut at Yarmouth late last month in a seven-furlong novice. There she was third when beaten a length and three-quarters, showing plenty of evidence that she can progress next time out when stepping up to a mile. In the following novice Andrew Balding's Allegresse appeals as he makes his second start in the Unibet Supporting Safer Gambling Restricted Novice Stakes. The Oasis Dream colt took to the track at Doncaster last month, running in a seven-furlong novice and placing second when beaten two and three quarter lengths. He now steps up to a mile, and with relations including Eldar Eldarov on the dam side he seems bound to appreciate the extra distance and further still in time. Dubai Beach can make a winning return to the all-weather in the seven-furlong Try Unibet's New Improved Acca Boosts Handicap. Trained by Saeed bin Suroor for Godolphin, the Blue Point filly was seventh when last seen making her turf debut in a Thirsk handicap over the same trip. She was not afforded a clear run and it would unfair to write her off on a grass surface, but her prior all-weather form is persuasive as she has three good Kempton efforts to her name already. At Brighton, Charles Hills' Bee My Honey can get her head in front in the Matt & Jacob #together Restricted Maiden Stakes having finished second in all three outings so far throughout her career. Her two runs this year have both been on the all-weather, but she had a turf run at two and now steps back up to seven furlongs - the trip over which she has come closest to success so far. At Chepstow, the BetWright Bangers N'Cash/EBF Maiden Stakes can go the way of Harry Charlton's Queen Tamara. A 135,000 guineas purchase, the Space Blues filly made her debut in a relatively competitive Newmarket novice in June, finishing fifth over six furlongs. She then stepped up to seven at Doncaster next time out, getting much closer to the action and missing out by three quarters of a length. She remains at seven furlongs for her third trip to the racecourse, and with more experience and more encouraging form than many rivals she looks poised to get her head in front.
