DANCING CITY CAN HELP SEAL TITLE FOR MULLINS

By Anita Chambers, PA

Willie Mullins can seal back-to-back British trainers' championship victories in style with Dancing City taken to star on the final day of the season at Sandown. The Closutton handler has taken no chances in the bet365 Gold Cup Handicap Chase, fielding 10 of the 20 runners with Grangeclare West's presence at the head of the field ensuring plenty will be running from out of the handicap. Stablemate Dancing City is one of those lining up off his correct mark, although he has to bounce back from a fall at Aintree last time out, coming down six out when still travelling well in the Mildmay won by Caldwell Potter.

He had previously won his first two chase starts but finished down the field in the Brown Advisory at Cheltenham, when he set out to make all but was pressured for the lead and eventually made a costly jumping error that ended his race. Paul Townend has opted to ride High Class Hero, leaving Jonjo O'Neill jnr to take the reins on Dancing City, who steps up markedly in trip but has always looked likely to get further in time and could still be pretty unexposed. Gaelic Warrior is also expected to make it onto the scoresheet in the bet365 Oaksey Chase.

He returned to winning form with a comprehensive success in the Bowl at Aintree and now he is back in the winning groove, he could be hard to peg back. Although Dan Skelton will likely have to settle for second again behind Mullins, Take No Chances can ensure he does not go down without a fight. She lines up in the bet365 Select Hurdle having twice finished behind Lossiemouth, taking third in the both the Mares' Hurdle at Cheltenham and the Aintree Hurdle at the Grand National meeting. Beaten a fair way at chunky odds on both occasions, she is rated 7lb inferior to likely favourite Kitzbuhel but her mares' allowance keeps her in the mix, with good ground seemingly more in her favour than the market leaders. Grade One action is on offer in the bet365 Celebration Chase and it is hard to look past the skinny odds of Jonbon.

SELECTIONS

DOUBLE: Jonbon and Dancing City.
