ESTRANGE MAGIC EXPECTED AT CARLISLE

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

Estrange can stamp her authority on the Betway Lester Piggott Fillies' Stakes and retain her crown at the temporary home of Carlisle, David O'Meara's stable star has yet to be seen so far this term following a brilliant campaign last year when she won this Group Three contest and the Lancashire Oaks, both at Haydock. Moved to Cumbria after officials in Merseyside were forced to abandon their two-day card on Tuesday, the daughter of Night Of Thunder would ideally like rain to arrive and soften the ground to her preference. However, with an official mark of 116, she is the leading light in the field and should be hard to beat, even if the weather goes against the five-year-old mare. Princling looks an exciting prospect for William Haggas and could make it two successive wins in the Betway Silver Bowl Handicap. The three-year-old Kingman colt out of a Frankel filly finally shed his maiden tag at the third time of asking when going off odds-on at Wetherby. He had run well in defeat on his two starts as a juvenile, with only Godolphin-owned Fort Rock and highly-regarded Yazin proving too good at Kempton and Newmarket respectively. Now he has that first victory under his belt, Princling should continue to improve and could have some big targets this season. Azure Angel can build on her Lansdown Stakes success with another Listed triumph in the Betway Achilles Stakes. Ed Bethell's six-year-old mare claimed the biggest victory of her career when holding off Cindy Lou Who by a short head in the Bath feature last month. She has a 3lb penalty for that success, but she still has 2lb on her male counterparts and seems rejuvenated since a permanent switch to five-furlong sprinting. It is hard to look past a Karl Burke-trained two-year-old who has a win next to their name as Kodi Bear Light aims for Hilary Needler Trophy EBF Fillies' Conditions Stakes glory at Beverley. She only found Hickory Lad too much on her racecourse debut at Musselburgh before winning by a length at Thirsk earlier this month. Burke has not won this race since 2005, but Kodi Bear Light could propel herself amongst the Spigot Lodge handler's burgeoning crop of juveniles with victory on the Westwood. Matteo was destructive on his debut over course and distance and appears the one to beat in the Beverley Two Year Old Trophy EBF Conditions Stakes. Kevin Ryan's Coulsty colt breezed to a four-and-three-quarter-length success on his sole appearance and that experience around here should come to the fore. Ian Williams' Supido can improve for his victory at Chester when he returns to the Roodee for the valuable Virgin Bet Handicap, while Grasmere Boy can go one better than his runner-up on debut for trainer Julie Camacho in the Download The Raceday Ready App Maiden Stakes at Catterick. Alta Regina, who recently cost owners Wathnan Racing 240,000 guineas, makes her debut for Hamad Al Jehani in the APC Electrical EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes at Lingfield. On the jumps card at Stratford, Imperial Alex can reverse his narrow Ffos Las defeat last time out in the Farmers Fresh Handicap Chase.
