Bluey is the colour for Aintree backers

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Bluey can pick up from where she signed off last season when launching her campaign in the William Hill Old Roan Limited Handicap Chase at Aintree. The Emma Lavelle-trained mare enjoyed a fruitful campaign time of things and was only outside of the top two on one occasion from six starts. The seven-year-old won impressively at Kempton and then was back in the winner's enclosure in January, winning a valuable Windsor handicap.

She was only beaten two and a quarter lengths in a Listed event at Wincanton before gaining compensation with a neck victory as she wrapped up her season at Market Rasen. Bluey has only been raised 3lb for that triumph and she can take that in her stride to come out on top as she drops back to two and a half miles on ground that is sure to suit. Hillberry Hill is going hat-trick hunting as he makes his handicap debut in the William Hill Price Boosts Every Day Handicap Hurdle.

The five-year-old was well beaten on his debut for Mags Mullins in November last year but he really came into his own when he was stepped up to two and a half miles. He won a maiden hurdle at Thurles before he crossed the Irish Sea and transferred to the care of Kim Bailey and Mat Nicholls, making an instant impact for his new yard at Southwell in March.

That saw him handed an initial mark of 122 and this unexposed sort might be one to keep on the right side for now. Molto Bene will bid to put a bout of seconditis behind her in the Little Lights Loop Conditional Jockeys' Handicap Hurdle The Jukebox Jury mare won well at Bangor this time last year and followed that up with another victory at Huntingdon.

She then stepped up in grade for a Listed race at Doncaster, only beaten three-and-three-quarter lengths by Lavida Adiva, and she tried her luck at that level again at Newbury but was no match for the smart Panic Attack. It was only a neck that prevented her getting back to winning ways at Leicester and also Market Rasen, where she was second best to the aforementioned Bluey. B ut only 2lb higher and dropped back to the smaller obstacles she can get her season up and running. Paul Nicholls is hunting down Martin Pipe's record for most successful British National Hunt trainer and can take a step closer with Order On Time in the Jack Ryder 18th Birthday Maiden Hurdle.

The master of Ditcheat needs 10 to overhaul Pipe's record of 3,930 winners and this five-year-old was a very impressive 10-length winner on his bumper debut at Chepstow in April. Olly Murphy and Sean Bowen team up with the unbeaten Moore Brion in the Market Rasen Racecourse Caravan & Touring Site Maiden Hurdle. The Doctor Dino gelding won bumpers last season here and at Uttoxeter and is taken to follow up when going over obstacles for the first time.
