CHEMISTRY TO CLAIM VICTORY AT KELSO

By Nick Robson, Press Association

Chemistry ran better than his finishing position suggested in the Chester Cup and can retain his unbeaten record over timber in the Ladies Day Novices' Hurdle at Kelso. The Kingman gelding began life with Aidan O'Brien when winning twice, including at Listed level, before he finished second in the valuable Petingo Handicap at Leopardstown. Sold later that year, he moved on to Ivan Furtado but he failed to get the best out of him and he is now with the capable Jennie Candlish. The first thing she did was send him over hurdles and he won at Sedgefield, beating an odds-on shot, before he ran in the Chester Cup where he turned into the short home straight in fourth place before fading. He could make hay on the summer jumping scene. There is a suspicion we have seen nowhere near the limit of The Kemble Brewery's full ability and despite a hefty weight rise, he could still be the one to beat in the Elliot Henderson Group Handicap Hurdle. None of the four runners can be ruled out with confidence but it finally looked last time out that Kim Bailey and Mat Nicholls' faith was about to be repaid. He has won five of his 10 races but has been put up 9lb for winning easily last time out, if he wins again connections have a smart performer on their hands. With Dan Skelton eyeing up Martin Pipe's record number of winners in a year he is likely to be just as prolific in the summer as he was throughout last winter. With that in mind First Candidate looks a solid selection in the Wrights Rolling In The Dough Derby Mares' Novices' Hurdle at Uttoxeter. The six-year-old has already done enough to be rated 122, which is quite lofty in terms of the standard of opposition she is facing. She is giving away 6lb to the whole field but looked good at Haydock. The Skeltons should also be on the mark in the Wrights Centenary Gold Cup Handicap Hurdle with Service Minimum. She has won her last two at Bangor and Warwick and is 11lb higher than for the first of those but she has youth on her side and can keep improving. Majestic Moment can regain the winning thread in the attheraces.com/Marketmovers Handicap Chase at Fontwell. He was on an upward curve winning three of his last four races before falling last time out, and he can give the odd fence a belt. But a clear round should see him prevail and he is still only seven. Over in Ireland True Love can confirm Newmarket form with stablemate Precise in the Tattersalls Irish 1,000 Guineas at the Curragh. Precise was stable number one that day and while she was the choice of Ryan Moore, True Love was well on top at the line. This time Moore has jumped on True Love, which suggests he thinks she will prevail again. There is also the Tattersalls Gold Cup where it is hard to see Minnie Hauk being beaten, albeit over a trip slightly short of her best.

SELECTIONS:

CURRAGH: 1.45 Sun Goddess, 2.15 Great Barrier Reef, 2.45 Green Carrera, 3.20 Stateira, 3.55 Minnie Hauk, 4.30 True Love, 5.05 Greek Flower, 5.40 Delta.
