KICH TO TAKE SOME CATCHING AT LINGFIELD

By Tony Kelshaw, PA

Kitaro Kich can build on a couple of encouraging runs last month when contesting the Boost Your Acca At BetMGM Handicap at Lingfield. Wearing blinkers for the first time, George Baker's charge caught the eye finishing fourth behind Profitman at Chelmsford after an early bump and was then backed into joint-favourite at the same track next time out. A wide draw left him running three deep throughout but he travelled strongly and still looked set to oblige when coming through smoothly to challenge on the home turn and kicking on just before the furlong pole. Unfortunately for his supporters, Union Island stayed on strongly and wore down Kitaro Kich to win by a head, with the third horse over two lengths adrift. Union Island has at least franked the form by twice running well again since and with an inside berth to assist him here, Kitaro Kich is taken to recoup the losses. Star Of Atlantis got off the mark in fine style at Southwell recently, just getting the better of a late battle with market leader Monsieur Fantaisie by a head, with the third two lengths back. With the Jack Jones stable in solid form, he is taken to follow up in division two of the Win #1M With BetMGM's Golden Goals Classified Stakes. Al Waqidi is a fascinating entry in the Best Odds Guaranteed At BetMGM Novice Stakes, as he was last seen in action at Newmarket way back in April 2021. On that occasion, he made it two from two for Charlie Appleby by seeing off the late challenge of Scope, who went on to secure a Group One success in France at the end of the season. Having been offloaded by Godolphin in March 2023 for #16,000, Al Waqidi is now in the care of Jamie Osborne and is a speculative selection to prove a cut above his rivals despite such a lengthy lay-off. Salvator Mundi will be the centre of attention at Punchestown in the Grade Two Sky Bet Club Moscow Flyer Novice Hurdle. The five-year-old was just headed in the closing stages when second to Sir Gino on his sole start in France and was thrown in at the deep end on his first outing for Willie Mullins, finishing sixth behind stablemate Majborough in the Triumph. He got off the mark when making all to win by a wide margin at Tipperary in May without ever coming off the bridle and big things are expected of him this term, as he is already ante-post favourite for the Supreme at Cheltenham. Down Memory Lane looks the pick of Gordon Elliott's three entries in the Sky Bet, For The Fans Novice Chase. The seven-year-old really impressed on his debut over fences at Navan in November and was not disgraced when third behind L'Eau du Sud in Grade One company at Sandown, where he just appeared to be spooked by an awkward jump at the first and was far from fluent at the next few obstacles.
