More in store for Morrophore backers

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Morrophore can make a successful return to the all-weather in the River Eden EBF Fillies' Stakes at Lingfield. John and Thady Gosden's mare is two from two at this track, with her head success over Sky Safari in the Winter Oaks a particularly strong piece of form given the runner-up went on to strike at Group Three level in the Winter Derby.

Morrophore has only run twice since that January triumph, with a disappointing comeback at York's Ebor meeting followed by a more respectable effort when third behind stablemate Naga and subsequent Prix de Royallieu winner Fairy Glen in the John Musker at Yarmouth. The Gosden runner sets the standard in this Listed event with a rating of 104 and if Ryan Moore can get her across from a wide draw, she should be bang there at the finish.

Listed honours are also up for grabs in the All-Weather Championships Season XIV Fleur De Lys Fillies' Stakes, which features the aforementioned Sky Safari. James Fanshawe's charge won her first five starts artificial surfaces, including in this race 12 months ago, before meeting with defeat for the first time at the hands of Morrophore. She then beat the useful Chancellor in the Winter Derby and while the Huxley Stakes on the turf at Chester proved a bridge too far, there was not much wrong with her third in the Group Three Hoppings Stakes at Newcastle during the summer after stumbling at the start. Sky Safari never really got going after encountering traffic problems in the John Musker, but is definitely worth another chance. Water To Wine can get his career back on track with victory in the Midnite It's Actually Pretty Good Handicap at Newcastle.

The son of Kingman looked a potential Derby contender for the Gosden team after bolting up on his Newbury debut, but he missed his trial at Chester due to a high temperature and ultimately missed the premier Classic at Epsom, instead heading to Royal Ascot after doubling his tally on the all-weather at Kempton.He was well fancied for the King Edward VII Stakes, but had to make do with the bronze medal behind Causeway, and was not seen again until finishing tailed off in a York handicap last month. Water To Wine clearly has a bit to prove, but remains an interesting project nonetheless. Olly Murphy is clearly keen to win at least one of the divisions of the Olly Murphy Racing "National Hunt" Maiden Hurdle at Warwick, declaring a total of seven runners across the two races.

His best chance of victory could be in division one with L'Unique Allen, who shaped with plenty of promise when a clear runner-up to Minella Premier in a bumper at Wetherby in the spring. The winner was previously successful at Fontwell and has since been sold for £300,000, so L'Unique Allen was probably just unfortunate to bump into an above average rival in West Yorkshire and should go well on his hurdling debut.Dan Skelton rarely leaves his local track without finding the target and he will have high hopes for Capricciose in the Great British Bonus Supporting Breeders' Day Mares' Novices' Hurdle. A Carlisle bumper winner for John Dawson last December before changing hands for £55,000 early in the new year, the five-year-old finished fifth in Listed company at Sandown on her first start for the champion trainer and was third on her reappearance and first start over hurdles at Stratford last month. She shaped as though she would improve for the run that day and better can be expected at the second time of asking.
