CARTESIAN CAN CONTINUE BECKETT'S HOT STREAK

By Nick Robson, PA

Ralph Beckett will never forget his week at Goodwood and his good run can continue with Miss Cartesian in the Daily Bet Boosts At BetVictor Fillies' Handicap at Newbury. Beckett famously landed the Sussex Stakes with 150-1 pacemaker Qirat and two of his fillies dead-heated in the Oak Tree Stakes. Now it is the turn of his Miss Cartesian, who is building up a nice body of work. Having won on her only outing at two last year, she went to Yarmouth for her seasonal debut when she narrowly failed to concede a penalty to Showering who has since franked that piece of form and won again. More recently she was able to give away weight to get back to winning ways at Newmarket and while that might not have been a strong race for the track, it is always the sign of an above average horse when they are able to do that. Her dam is a half-sister to the top-class pair of Modern Games and Mawj so an opening mark of 85 should make her competitive. Clive Cox's tends to win his fair share of maidens at Newbury and his Evie Ross looks a likely type on paper in the Get Best Odds Guaranteed With BetVictor ``Newcomers'' Maiden Fillies' Stakes. The daughter of Coulsty is a half-sister to Steel Bull who won the Molecomb and all the family on the female side were speedy. Charlie Johnston's Urgent Call hails from a very stout pedigree so it was pleasing he showed up well on his debut. The son of Wootton Bassett is related to the likes of Pablo Escobarr and Roberto Escobarr, both Group Three winners who stayed strongly. Third of six on his debut over seven furlongs, it was a pleasing enough start and he can be expected to take a good leap forward in the Download The Raceday Ready EBF Maiden Stakes at Catterick, with his entry in the Goffs Million suggesting Johnston thinks a bit of him. Jamih may be a 10-year-old but he goes well at Catterick which is at least a tick in one box more than most of his rivals in the Good Bad Ugly And Deaf Handicap can muster. Tina Jackson's stalwart has won five times but not since August last year off a mark of 51. He is now down to a basement rating of 48 and it is getting to the realms of if he can not win off this mark you struggle to see him winning again. At Ffos Las Hugo Palmer's Condotti has the look of one whose turn is not far away in the DragonBet Proud Sponsors Of Ffos Las Racecourse Handicap. The Soldier's Call gelding finished second on his final start at two, and on his handicap debut this year - when a 40-1 chance - he was only beaten four lengths despite being seventh. Last time out, over the same course and distance he faces here and wearing first-time headgear, he was beaten less than a length when third. Off the same mark he must go close.
