Supplicate to continue winning streak at Redcar

By Nick Robson, Press Association

Roger Varian has placed Supplicate carefully to bring up a hat-trick this season and she can make it five on the bounce overall in the Market Cross Jewellers Handicap at Redcar. The Cheveley Park Stud homebred began her winning sequence at Lingfield in December and has picked up where she left off since returning from a winter break, with a successful comeback in a novice event at Bath followed by summer handicap wins at Nottingham and Salisbury. She defied a penalty to win at Bath, won off 77 at Nottingham and with another 4lb on her back at

Salisbury, which arguably was her most impressive win to date. Clearly still on the upgrade she has another 6lb to contend with, but is from a family with plenty of black type winners. This is a good time of year for the three-year-olds to be taking on their elders while they still get a weight allowance and with that in mind, Ed Bethell's Return Of The Gods appeals in the Start Your RacingTV Free Trial Now Handicap. A winner of one of his two starts at two, he added a second success at Doncaster in July, taking his mark up to 79. He was a beaten odds-on favourite at Thirsk last time, but the winner, Raging Raj, has subsequently gone close at Ascot off a much higher mark. Return Of The Gods will face much more exposed rivals for his latest assignment and should go close. Julie Camacho's All Good must have been a bit of a nightmare for the handicapper to get a grip on. Having shown very little in two starts as a juvenile, she was sent off a big price for her return at Ripon after almost a year off. Connections were not surprised she was able to win there, though, and a mark of 69 in the Try RacingTV Free Now At racingtv.com/freetrial Fillies' Handicap might underestimate her. Flick Of An Eye looks another likely juvenile winner for Simon and Ed Crisford in the British EBF Novice Stakes at Yarmouth. A £150,000 breeze-up purchase, the son of Blackbeard made a highly encouraging start to his career when third at Newbury three weeks ago. He looks certain to be sharper at the second time of asking and is difficult to oppose. Connections of Regal Tiger had a frustrating time of things in August, but they can be rewarded for their patience in the "GRC 30' Anniversary Of Yarmouth" Nursery Handicap. Since weakening into fourth place on his Haydock debut, Hugo Palmer's charge has twice filled the runner-up spot, most recently going down by half a length to Keep Kicking On on what was his handicap debut at Windsor in July. But while the winner has since followed up at the same venue, Regal Tiger has been declared a non-runner on two occasions due to unsuitable ground and was then withdrawn at Newbury after becoming upset in the starting stalls. Assuming he is better behaved in Norfolk, he does not look badly treated off a mark of 73. When one of James Fanshawe's wins first time out they are usually above average, so Tredegar Square is of interest in division two of the Free Digital Racecard At raceday-ready.com "Confined" Restricted Novice at Wolverhampton. Home bred by Jan and Peter Hopper, he was very impressive at Kempton last month at a big price. He had to overcome a wide draw that day too, so was probably value for a bit more than the winning margin of two and a quarter lengths, and it would be surprising if he fails to improve.
