Maximising opportunity at Hamilton

By Nick Robson, Press Association

Billy Loughnane makes the long journey to Hamilton where Maximising looks among the best of his rides in the Big Drew Hunter Memorial Handicap. Loughnane is of course locked in a battle with Oisín Murphy to be champion jockey and it would cap a remarkable rise for the 20-year-old, who won the 2000 Guineas this year on Bow Echo. He has been travelling the length and breadth of the country in the pursuit of winners and Maximising, trained by Kevin Philippart De Foy, had been running well on the all-weather without reward before a switch to turf at Windsor saw him win by two lengths. The handicapper has taken a bit of a swing at him with a 5lb rise, but he has only had three runs on turf so there could be more to come. Loughnane also looks to have a strong chance in the opening Wee Brian Reilly Memorial EBF Restricted Maiden Stakes on Celtic Storm. The Richard Hughes-trained juvenile improved from his first run to his second, when Loughnane rode him at Kempton and he saw the mile out well. Against a field of largely debutants, he can put his experience to good use. The Redev Roman was very impressive at Ripon last time out and can follow up in the Hamilton Park Nursery Handicap. She was a little out of her depth in her first two races, firstly in a valuable event at York and then Beverley's Hilary Needler. But down in grade at Ripon she was an easy winner where she was also probably suited by the much softer ground. With an ease in conditions in Scotland she could prove hard to beat. Doon The Glen's last win came over six furlongs at Hamilton and back down to 11lb below that mark, he can provide Jim Goldie with his customary winner at the track. With the going still quick at Plumpton the field sizes are understandably small. Dan and Harry Skelton have been racking up the winners this summer and while you might not get rich backing them it is hard to oppose the likes of Premier Tenor in the Henners Gallop To Grape-Ness Maiden Hurdle. Third and second in two runs in May and June, it will be a shock if he fails to make it third time lucky. Jonjo and A J O'Neill have been among the winners recently and their Gower Prince can take advantage of bottom-weight in the Friends & Family Remembering Norman Sharpe Handicap Hurdle.
