Queen can be crowned at Windsor

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Queen Of Scotland can strike at the second time of asking in the Kim Smith Memorial Maiden Fillies' Stakes at Windsor. The Pinatubo filly made her debut late last month at Goodwood over 10 furlongs and was a four-and-three-quarter-length second to Chimes Of Thunder when not getting a clear run on the Sussex Downs. But the George Boughey-trained three-year-old can benefit from going up in trip and having her sights slightly lowered in grade in Berkshire and it will be a much easier task for her to break her maiden. Marsh Benham can defy a 4lb penalty to double up in the Matchbook Signup - Get 20% Back On Losses Handicap. The seven-year-old was a length-and-a-half second on his seasonal reappearance at Brighton in June but won at Sandown and that victory saw him raised 4lb by the handicapper. He was then well tailed off at Salisbury and then finished fourth of five when returning to Brighton. But he put those indifferent runs behind him last time out at Epsom four days ago when running out a cosy five-length winner over Redredrobin. Despite being handed a 4lb penalty for that victory he can quickly get back into the winner's enclosure. Karl Burke's Instant Force is another who can benefit from a drop in trip in the Matchbook Betting Exchange Supporting UK Racing EBF Maiden Stakes. He was only headed close to the line at Ayr in July and beaten a head and was then beaten four and a quarter lengths at Hamilton with both of those second-place finishes coming over six furlongs. But five furlongs seemingly will be a better fit and he should have enough in the tank to get his nose in front with cheekpieces applied. Silky Robin can get back to winning ways in the Ivor Laws Memorial Race Novice Stakes. The Exceed And Excel gelding scored hard-fought wins at Lingfield and Brighton and after being raised 4lb was only beaten one and three-quarter lengths when raised in grade at Newmarket. With the assistance of Tom Marquand in the saddle he can again get his nose in front upped in trip to six furlongs. Andrew Balding’s King Of Berkshire is the pick to come out on top in the Bet £20 Get £40 In Free Bets At matchbook.com Handicap and secure a third win of the season. Satyress can complete a four-timer in the Every Race Live On Racing TV Apprentice Handicap at Thirsk. Despite wins at Beverley, Hamilton and Newcastle she has only gone up 7lb and off a still competitive mark of 54 can strike again. Diamondsforyou is a half-sister to Catching The Moon and she can come on for her second-place finish at Pontefract and score in the British Stallion Studs EBF Novice Stakes. You Be Lucky Jean is taken to maintain her unbeaten run in the Fairlight Studios Mares’ Maiden Hurdle at Sedgefield. A winner of bumpers at Kelso and Sedgefield, she can make a winning start over timber.
