Prolific Kamille Au Kanada can notch another win

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Kamille Au Kanada can continue her strong winter campaign and record a four-timer in the "Anyone Want A Drink? Anyone?" Handicap Hurdle at Plumpton. The six-year-old barely had to get out of first gear on her hurdling debut in May at the Sussex track, cantering to a 48-length victory over stablemate Arfursgal to justify the prohibitive odds of 1-3.

She stepped up in grade when reappearing for the winter, finishing a well-beaten fifth of seven at Chepstow, but back down in grade she secured a hat-trick of comfortable victories, at Hereford twice and Lingfield. Anthony Honeyball's mare will shoulder a 7lb penalty, but with Chad Bament's 5lb claim again likely to be invaluable, she can occupy her now familiar place in the winner's enclosure.

Golly Gosh has been in fine form since moving to the care of Tom Ellis and can translate his chasing form to the smaller obstacles in the More Radio Novices' Limited Handicap Hurdle. The Soldier Of Fortune gelding switched to Ellis in September after an unsuccessful seven-race career with Billy Aprahamian. He was three and a quarter lengths down on his chasing debut on good to firm ground at Stratford but was then only a neck in arrears of Cap Ricochet at Market Rasen.

He broke his duck at Plumpton over two and a half miles when making all and gained a second win over fences on Friday. A step up to three miles and a furlong can bring about further improvement for the five-year-old. Ginolo looks a likely type for Nicky Henderson in the Weatherbys & Birdie Calendars Novices' Hurdle.

He runs in the Gold Cup-winning colours of Bobs Worth and while it is asking a lot for him to go on to those heights, there was plenty to like about his debut in a Worcester bumper. Beaten only one and a half lengths into second by Ballydine Boy, he was nicely clear of the third and Henderson has wasted no time in sending him over hurdles.

Leading Role is a strong fancy to follow up his debut victory in the first division of the AWC Season 14 Has Begun EBF Novice Stakes at Wolverhampton. The Teofilo colt was always doing enough as he ran on gamely in a decent novice event at Nottingham and while he has a 7lb penalty as the only horse in the race with a win under his belt, that is negated by the booking of Toby Moore.

Moore and Charlie Appleby can earn more joy with Desert Romance as she drops in trip in the Read Meg Nicholls' Blog At betmgm.co.uk EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes. The daughter of Dubawi raced very greenly on debut at Newmarket and ran out of gas in the final furlong to go down by two and a quarter lengths. She again did not stay the seven furlongs at Doncaster and a first attempt at six can see her break her maiden at the third attempt.
