NARDRA MERITS RESPECT AT NEWMARKET

By Anita Chambers, PA

Nardra can sign off for the season with victory in the Listed Irish Stallion Farms EBF 'Bosra Sham' Fillies' Stakes at Newmarket. William Haggas takes a swift leap in class with his charge after what was an impressive win on debut at Haydock last month. The Night Of Thunder filly ran out an eight-and-a-half-length scorer from three rivals and while the form was nothing special, Nardra deserved a good deal more credit as the race had been subject to a lengthy delay due to a medical emergency in the crowd. Nardra kept her cool though and showed a nice change of gear on a soft surface, so this autumn ground should hold no fears in what appears an open heat.

Magnetite is another worth noting in the Cologne's German 2000 Guineas British EBF Novice Stakes. A son of Frankel out of the exceptional racemare Attraction, he cost 575,000 guineas as a yearling and is a full-brother to the smart Elarqam.

Torrent can turn around recent form with Liam Swagger in the Weatherbys nhstallions.co.uk Wensleydale Juvenile Hurdle at Wetherby. Winner of two of his four hurdles starts for Nigel Hawke, he has finished second on the other two occasions, most recently beaten just over four lengths by Liam Swagger. Torrent was conceding 8lb that day and is in receipt of 3lb this time, giving him a handy pull that could prove crucial. Genois can build on a decent start for Jonjo and AJ O'Neill by landing the Each Way Extra At bet365 Handicap Chase. Previously trained by Enda Bolger in Ireland, Genois managed just one win in 17 starts but shaped with much more promise when third on his British bow.

Beaten six and a half lengths in a novice handicap chase, Genois' rating of 127 looks competitive judged on the pick of his form. Farnoge lost his way a bit over hurdles last term but always looks the type to really find his stride over a fence. Winner of a bumper and two novice hurdles, he was pulled up when upped to Grade One level in the Challow and when sent to Musselburgh's Cheltenham trials meeting, but he did make some amends with a Listed third to round off his campaign. Having previously finished second to the classy Better Days Ahead in point-to-point company, he should be followed in the bet365 Novices' Chase.

Another expected to shine first time over fences is the Ben Pauling-trained Personal Ambition at Uttoxeter. He topped two novice wins with a Grade Two success at Kelso back in March but trailed home a well-beaten last behind Mystical Power at Grade One level at Aintree. Lookaway was third that day and is he Personal Ambition's rival in a match for the Kalahari King Novices' Chase, with Pauling's charge the pick. The yard also field The Hawkstonian in the Quinnbet Open National Hunt Flat Race. He is sure to garner plenty of support with the E45,000 purchase owned by a syndicate spearheaded by TV star Jeremy Clarkson. Down Royal's two-day fixture kicks off with Brighterdaysahead expected to shine in the Bottlegreen Hurdle. She hacked up in the Mersey Novices' Hurdle at Aintree in the spring and can kick off her campaign in style here.
