CARLISLE DRAW:

Runner racing with the pace and hardest against the inside rail (high) do well in big fields on decent ground. This is largely down to the fact that the flat course and NH course are the same, and that those racing nearest the fence are running where the hurdle wings were (low) and grabbing the stands’ rail in the straight favoured at all distances.

Notice: No mixing of Place Pot racing in 1 into 2 or 2 into 3 etc., unless it is stated on the program .

DOUBLE: Musical Terms and Jonniesofa

MUSICAL DELIGHT AT CHELMSFORD

By Anita Chambers, Press Association Sport

Musical Terms has turned into a different horse since his mid-season gelding operation and can keep up the good work in the Bet totetrifecta At betfred.com Handicap at Chelmsford.

The three-year-old was certainly no slouch prior to the procedure, placing on each of his three starts at the beginning of the campaign, but after his fourth at Yarmouth in June, connections took the plunge and he was then off the track until August.

However, it appears to have been a good decision as Musical Terms has scored twice since for William Haggas in the colours of the Queen.

He landed a modest maiden at Ripon in decent style on his return before following up at Chelmsford, prevailing by a short head in a competitive handicap.

The narrow margin of victory has limited the handicapper to just a 3lb rise and Musical Terms can lift his game again.

Saeed bin Suroor unleashes a couple of nice prospects under the floodlights as both Ocean Of Love and Spring Waterfall line up.

Ocean Of Love contest the 2018 Membership Now Available Maiden Stakes, making her first start since finishing fourth on her racecourse debut last November.

The form of that race has worked out reasonably well, with a handful of moderate winners having since emerged, but Ocean Of Love ran well enough and normal improvement would be just enough to get her on the winning track.

Given the stamina on her dam's side, Ocean Of Love should appreciate the step up in trip and it is perhaps telling Godolphin have persisted.

Spring Waterfall is a newcomer in the Bet totequadpot At betfred.com Fillies' Novice Stakes but she boasts a pedigree that is second to none.

A half-sister to Golden Slipper winner Miss Finland, Spring Waterfall has clearly been given plenty of time before being pitched into action.

Jonniesofa can make a dream return to action in the Visit The All New racinguk.com Beginners' Chase at Carlisle.

Rose Dobbin harbours high hopes for the seven-year-old who won three of his six hurdles starts in the 2015/16 campaign before suffering an injury when ninth in the 2016 Albert Barlett at the Cheltenham Festival.

That setback kept him off the track for the whole of last season and returning after a break of more than 500 days here is obviously not ideal.

However, Dobbin believes the extra bit of time off he had last term is not necessarily a negative and Jonniesofa was always viewed as a chasing prospect in

Chilli Filli got her head in front in a Bangor bumper back in May and can now crack on over obstacles in the Thoroughbred Breeders Association Mares' Novices' Hurdle at Ludlow.

She improved plenty from her first unplaced start in March to win by a comfortable length, with the race well under control with a couple of furlongs to run.

Chilli Filli looked to have the size to tackle obstacles and she could be a nice prospect for Henry Daly.

Twist On Ginge might be a small wager as he lines up in the Bet #10 Get #20 At 188Bet Chase at Southwell.
