Twilight Calls at Ayr for Osborne followers

By Nick Robson, Press Association

Twilight Calls can cap a magical seven days for Saffie Osborne in the Ladbrokes Ayr Gold Cup. Just a week on from creating history in the St Leger on Highwayman, Osborne teams up with one of her main backers in trainer Richard Spencer for the £180,000 cavalry charge. Spencer has worked wonders with this eight-year-old, who is back running to a very high level after a spell in the wilderness. Back in his days with Henry Candy he was a Group One sprinter, with a second at Royal Ascot a career-best. He joined Spencer in April 2025 but went winless last season and his mark continued to drop after a few runs in Dubai. In a first time visor he won at Sandown in June off 80 and has not run a bad race since, rising to 96 meaning he has sneaked in right at the bottom of the weights. The partnership were second in the Portland last weekend when Osborne admitted to hitting the front too soon, so do not expect to see her up there early. With a favourable high draw, a good run looks assured. Silent Beauty impressed when winning a Listed race at Ripon last month and can continue her progression in the Ladbrokes "New Customers Get 50/1 Old Firm Offer" Firth of Clyde Stakes. Kevin Philippart De Foy could do with a standout performer and this could be just the one. A debut winner at Yarmouth by four lengths from Scommessa Sicura, who was second in the May Hill last week, she bombed out in the Albany at Ascot but the ground was very fast that week. She was subsequently sent to Ireland for a Listed race but did not run after becoming cast in her box and was not seen again until Ripon's big event on Bank Holiday Monday. On ratings she was entitled to win but it was hard not to be impressed and she arrives relatively fresh. Ed Walker should know Fast Tracker a bit better now and he looks the answer to a tricky Ladbrokes "Get Racing Bet Builder Winnings Boosts" Doonside Cup Stakes. This will be just his third run for Walker having been trained in France in his younger days but his third behind Zavateri last time out was a good effort in the context of this race. Andrew Balding's Amir Lehabab caught something of a tartar when beaten at Doncaster back in July. He had no answer to an apparent Godolphin second string making his debut in Quest For Stars, but he has subsequently gone on to win his next two and be third in a Group One. Arapaho Gold has the look of a good thing in the Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef Stakes at Newbury. Despite carrying a penalty for his relatively cosy success in the Gimcrack at York, he just looks to be in a different league to most of his opponents. Early in his career he had something of a problem in the stalls but those issues now seem to be ironed out and he was very professional at York. The filly Jolivette could give him most to do but it will be disappointing if he fails to remain unbeaten. Jane Chapple-Hyam has booked Ryan Moore for Balzac in the Dubai Duty Free Handicap in a bid to get his nose back in front. He has been set some stiff tasks this season, not least in the Derby, but he went close in a decent handicap at Ascot when last seen. Naana's Sparkle has something to find on the figures but looks to still be improving and is a sprinter bang in form in the Dubai International Airport World Trophy Stakes. Lemos De Souza has done a great job with her and he can land his biggest win to date.
