ACCLAIM TO TAKE SOUTHWELL HONOURS
By Keith Hamer, Press Association Sport

Pearl Acclaim has served his trainer David Griffiths well this winter and can continue the excellent work with victory in the feature at Southwell. The Acclamation gelding has been successful three times over five furlongs at the Nottinghamshire venue since December and can make it four in the Betway Sprint Handicap.

The handicapper has taken a bit of a chance as it was not a bad run behind Something Lucky and it would be no surprise to see him get his head back in front. Helen Sherbet has been a Southwell regular over the last three months, winning twice from five appearances and placed in two more.

Trainer Karl Burke looks to have found another good opportunity for her in the 32Red.com Handicap. Spiritoftomintoul can benefit from a step back in distance and defy top weight in the Betway Live Casino Handicap. The Tony Carroll-trained gelding has not won since February 2016 but went close over two miles at Chelmsford last month when beaten a length by Western Way.

She was only beaten two lengths when fifth to The Night King at Chelmsford and would not have to improve much on that performance to open her account in the 32Red Casino Handicap. Generous Day can cope with a 6lb rise in the ratings to take the Read Noel Fehily at 188Bet Handicap Hurdle at Market Rasen. Henry Oliver's six-year-old was a tidy winner by two and a half lengths from Bowie over an extended two and a quarter miles on Boxing Day.
