Pic picked to go one better in Charlie Hall

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Pic d'Orhy can go one better than 12 months ago when he makes his debut for Dan Skelton in the bet365 Charlie Hall Chase at Wetherby. The 11-year-old was a stable star for Paul Nicholls before moving to the Alcester base of the champion trainer at the end of the season and was only beaten a length by Djelo in last year's renewal when trying three miles for the first time. He goes best fresh and having been off the track since April when well beaten on ground that was softer than ideal he can make an immediate impact for Skelton in West Yorkshire. Strong Leader is fancied to defend his crown in the bet365 Hurdle. The Olly Murphy-trained nine-year-old will renew rivalry with Take No Chances, who he beat by just a neck last year and despite having to give the mare 11lb this time he is a pretty smart stayer away from Cheltenham and will be hard to beat again. His best form comes before the turn of the year and he also went close in the Long Distance Hurdle and Long Walk Hurdle last season following his Wetherby success. Watamu steps up in grade for the bet365 Montagu Mares' Hurdle and has every chance of completing a hat-trick. The daughter of Crystal Ocean ran out a ready three-and-a-quarter-length winner at Stratford in March when dropped back to an extended two miles and after a summer break she picked up where she left off at the Warwickshire venue. The five-year-old will now attempt to get some black type on ground that will be right up her street. Viroflay is taken to move Nicholls a step closer to Martin Pipe's record as the most successful British National Hunt trainer when he lines up for the Sodexo Live! Regal Encore Handicap Chase at Ascot. The nine-year-old has been ridden on 14 of his 16 racecourse starts by Nicholls' now-retired daughter Olive, but Lucas Murphy – son of Grand National-winning rider Timmy – takes off a valuable 7lb from the top-weight and he can record a career-best success. Gore Point is no stranger to the winner's enclosure and looks booked for another visit in the Sodexo Live! Handicap Chase. The six-year-old was a 12-length second after nearly sixth months off at Fontwell in June when in need of the run. He then went on a winning spree during the summer in reeling off a 20-length victory at Stratford before completing a Newton Abbot hat-trick. Anthony Honeyball's charge had a rare off day at the Devon circuit in late August but showed that was no more than a minor blip when recording a fifth win in six starts last month. On the Flat at Newmarket, Bengal Tiger can follow up his taking victory in the Prospect Stakes at Doncaster last weekend with another win in the rearranged Horris Hill Stakes. His Aidan O'Brien-trained stablemate Haven was last seen finishing a length second to Musical Times in the bet365 Fillies' Mile at Headquarters, so sets the standard in the Listed British Stallion Studs EBF Montrose Fillies' Stakes. Gordon Elliott's Romeo Coolio can take the plaudits in the BetVictor, Remembering Envoi Allen Champion Chase at Down Royal. The seven-year-old lost his unbeaten chase record in the Brown Advisory Novices' Chase at the Festival in March when pulled up four fences out following a bad mistake on a day when he was never travelling smoothly.
