Rogue Diplomat looks City of York value

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

The recent rainfall can play into the hands of the progressive Rogue Diplomat in the Sky Bet City of York Stakes. The James Owen-trained colt appreciates cut in the ground that suits his smooth-galloping action, as he showed last season with a Newmarket win on good to soft followed by a pair of wins at Doncaster on good to soft and soft respectively. He was only a nose second on his return to action this season in the Lincoln on Town Moor, again on good to soft, and showed his versatility on firmer ground at Royal Ascot when he ran out a length winner in the Royal Hunt Cup. That earned him the opportunity to try Group company for the first time at Glorious Goodwood over this seven-furlong trip, where only Lake Forest - who reopposes - who proved too good in the Lennox Stakes. The Rogues Gallery-owned son of Calyx faces an even sterner test on the Knavesmire, but he has earned his shot at the top table and with conditions to suit he can give a good account at an each-way price. Daiquiri Bay can maintain his unbeaten season in the Sky Bet Ebor Handicap. The New Bay gelding was gelded over the winter and made his reappearance in a valuable Newmarket handicap, racing prominently before galloping on to beat John and Thady Gosden's Gamrai by a length. He came up against Gamrai again at Royal Ascot in the Copper Horse Stakes over this same mile-and-six-furlong distance and although it was closer he again got the better of the argument, holding him off a head. He can complete a hat-trick, despite being raised 9lb for those pair of victories. Geryon can gain compensation for Glorious Goodwood defeat in the Sky Bet Strensall Stakes. The Lope De Vega colt struck at impressively at Group Three level last month over nine furlongs in the Meld Stakes at Leopardstown, laying his challenge down two furlongs out and powering on for a three-and-a-quarter-length victory over Cowardofthecounty. He was then stepped up to a mile and a half in the Gordon Stakes and challenged Classic contender Enceladus going into the final furlong, beaten only a length and a quarter. But back down to 11 furlongs on a track that will be more to his liking he can again get back on the winning trail. Adonius can hit the mark to make it four wins from five starts in the Julia Graves Roses Stakes. The Rebecca Menzies-trained Soldier's Call gelding hosed up on debut in April on soft ground at Musselburgh, coming home seven lengths clear of the field, and followed up at the Scottish track later that month when upped in grade. He then completed a hat-trick in a conditions race at Chester that earned him a crack at the Molecomb at Goodwood. Adonis was right up a the head of the field at the business end of the race and only Pershaada proved better on the day. Limestone can get back on track after disappointment in France in the Sky Bet Melrose Handicap. Joseph O'Brien's charge will be testing himself in handicap company for the first time after finishing down the field, sixth of seven runners in the Grand Prix de Paris at ParisLongchamp. That was his only blip on the season for the three-year-old after wins at Cork and Navan preceded him holding off Del Maro by a nose in the Group Two Queen's Vase at Royal Ascot. Air Force One can defy a 5lb penalty for his York win on Wednesday to complete a quickfire Ebor Festival double in the Sky Bet Constantine Handicap, while Al Aali is taken to complete a hat-trick in the closing Sky Bet Dav Reid Finale Handicap.
