MALJOOM ON COMEBACK TRAIL ONCE MORE

By Adam Morgan, PA

William Haggas' Maljoom has the Paradise Stakes at Ascot in his sights and holds an outside chance of running in the Al Shaqab Lockinge. The five-year-old entire is lightly-raced and heads into this season having had a successful three-year-old campaign followed by well over a year off the track. A Group Two winner in the German 2,000 Guineas in 2022 and then fourth when beaten only half a length in the St James's Palace Stakes, Maljoom clearly has plenty of ability. Last season he was seen only once when fifth in the Joel Stakes and September but he is now preparing to make his seasonal debut at Ascot next month in the Listed Paradise Stakes. He also holds a Lockinge entry but may find that contest comes around too soon as the Newbury fixture is on May 18. ``He's going to the Paradise Stakes on May 1 and then we will decide if he goes for the Lockinge,'' Haggas said. ``I wanted to run him earlier than that so the Lockinge is probably a long shot, but I need to get his show back on the road, he's in good shape. ``He's only run once since the St James's Palace and he's very much trying to get his show back on the road. ``He's a talented horse but a fragile one, but to be fair to him he's trained very well this spring.'' Stablemate Montassib started his season on a high note when landing the Cammidge Trophy ahead of Marshman at Doncaster on the opening weekend of the turf season, though the runner-up was well beaten in the Abernant next time out. The Duke Of York could await Haggas' runner and there are French contests on the table also. ``He needs a bit of cut in the ground and he's in the Duke Of York, he might go there,'' the trainer said. ``The form of his race at Doncaster fell in a heap in the Abernant the other day and he could go for a Listed race at Chantilly on May 14 - we might do that.'' One Haggas runner that will not be seen on a racecourse again is Sense Of Duty, a talented Group-winning mare whose career has been cut short by an injury. ``Regrettably I think she has fractured her pelvis, so she will sadly be retired,'' Haggas said. ``It's very frustrating for Andrew Stone who owns her, but she will make a broodmare for him. ``It's always horrible for a trainer when you know a horse has talent and you never get to the bottom of her.''

PORTA FORTUNA ON COURSE FOR 1000 GUINEAS

By PA Sport Reporters

Porta Fortuna is on course for the Qipco 1000 Guineas having pleased trainer Donnacha O'Brien in a recent racecourse gallop. The Caravaggio filly won the Albany Stakes at Royal Ascot in June but showed she was far from just a precocious type when winning the Cheveley Park at the end of September. Stepped up to a mile for the first time at the Breeders' Cup, she went down by just half a length to Chad Brown's Hard To Justify in the Juvenile Fillies Turf. ``She's done well over the winter and we had her at Leopardstown for a day away on the Guineas Trials day and she went very well,'' said O'Brien. ``We're very happy with her and aiming for Newmarket. ``She barely won a maiden on heavy but all her best form is on quick ground, so I'd say the better the ground the better for her. ``She ran well over a mile at the Breeders' Cup, but a Newmarket mile is different than around Santa Anita. ``We are happy to give it a go and if it doesn't work we can always come back (in trip).''

O'BRIEN'S CHIEF CAN LAND EPSOM TRIAL

By Molly Hunter, PA

Chief Little Rock can head home to Ireland with his Classic prospects enhanced by winning the Betfred Blue Riband Trial at Epsom. The Galileo colt ran four times as a juvenile, finishing second on debut when beaten half length before returning the same track at Leopardstown to win a similar contest next time out. idan O'Brien's charge was then runner-up in the Group Two Beresford Stakes at the Curragh, after which he filled the same spot in the Group Three Autumn Stakes at Newmarket. There he was beaten by Godolphin's Ancient Wisdom, subsequently the winner of the Futurity Trophy at Doncaster. That form makes him the obvious candidate when he starts off his campaign at Listed level over an extended mile and a quarter that should bring about further improvement. On the same card Marco Botti's Felix can strike in the Lilley Plummer Risks City & Suburban Handicap. The chestnut caused a ruckus when refusing to go to post last time out at Lingfield, but prior to that was picking up money on the all-weather. It has therefore been some time since he ran on turf, but if agreeing to run his race he could tap into some fair form on the grass under Oisin Murphy. Simon and Ed Crisford's Involvement catches the eye in the Weatherbys Digital Solutions Novice Stakes. On debut at Redcar last September the Lope De Vega colt won by a comfortable four lengths, after which he was beaten just a neck in a Newcastle all-weather novice. There are three subsequent winners behind him across those two runs and he looks poised to start his term on the right foot. At Wolverhampton Trojan Truth can defy top-weight to take the Tips For Every Race At raceday-ready.com Apprentice Handicap for Ed de Giles. The gelding has a good record at the Dunstall Park track, winning or placing every time in three runs including two recent efforts under Liam Wright, the same 3lb claimer who will ride him this time. Tenyatta can add to her recent Wolverhampton success in the Get Raceday Ready Handicap. The filly had her first start for James Owen at the track earlier in the month, contesting a course and distance event and prevailing by a length. Now she returns raised 3lb for her trouble but still looks ahead of the curve and can strike again under the same rider as last time, 3lb claimer Aidan Keeley. At Yarmouth Gay Kelleway's She Is A Keeper can strike under Hollie Doyle in the QuinnBet Acca Bonus Fillies' Handicap. The three-year-old has been kept to the all-weather since joining her current trainer and has held her own in three starts on that surface, but she does have prior turf form for Richard Hannon. George Boughey's Pit Boss is one to watch in the British Stallion Studs EBF Maiden Stakes. By Ardad, the two-year-old is out of an unraced Azamour mare named Mara Grey, the dam of Amo Racing's Group-placed Crispy Cat - third in both the Norfolk Stakes and the Flying Childers.
