Crebilly can collect at Ascot

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

Crebilly can ride the crest of his Grade Three-winning wave when dropping down in class for the Join Ladbrokes Bet £5 Get £30 Handicap Chase at Ascot. Jonjo and AJ O'Neill's nine-year-old was last seen holding off Prairie Wolf by a neck at Wetherby, which maintained his great form from the summer. That was his fourth run since August and the JP McManus-owned gelding has not finished outside of the top three, with another victory and a runner-up spot to boot. He steps up in trip in comparison to those four starts, but he has campaigned over further before and it is hard to look past him when in such a rich vein of form. Another looking to build on a tight-margin success is Paul Nicholls' Fasol in the Ascot Shared Ownership Weekend Handicap Hurdle. The seven-year-old enjoyed a battle to the line with Watamu, edging out Emma Lavelle's challenger by a short head at Windsor last weekend to end a seven-race winless streak stretching back to New Year's Day at Musselburgh. Fasol remains at the same grade as he makes a rapid return to action, but will be buoyed with confidence despite the 7lb penalty. Crystal Island puts his unbeaten record on the line in the Ladbrokes "Chasing Excellence" Beginners' Chase. The lightly-raced five-year-old defeated Off The Jury – a recent winner at Aintree earlier this month – on debut last December before following up at Ffos Las in April. He will have to defy a 213-day absence, but Nicky Henderson's charge has proved he can deal with such breaks and looks to be the one to beat. Without Burlington began his jumps career with victory for the O'Neills and can double up in the Bet With Ascot Donation Box Winners "Introductory" Hurdle. A former Flat runner for Kevin Philippart De Foy, the four-year-old is technically on for a four-timer after success on the all-weather at Wolverhampton and turf glory at Yarmouth before his debut hurdling win at Worcester in July. Olly Murphy's Wilstar goes over fences for the first time on his reappearance at Chepstow in the Treble Odds L15s At David Lucas Handicap Chase. He won on his last two runs over hurdles in the spring but he always looked set to flourish in the chasing division and should give a good account of himself. On the synthetics at Wolverhampton, Asuka has a brilliant strike-rate in his short career and can add the feature All Weather Championship Handicap to George Boughey and Billy Loughnane's CV.
