WORDS OF TRUTH CAN SCURRY TO GLORY

AT SANDOWN

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

The BetMGM Scurry Stakes at Sandown represents a gilt-edged opportunity for Words Of Truth to open his account for the season. Charlie Appleby's speedy gelding won three times as a juvenile last term, completing his hat-trick in the Group Two Mill Reef Stakes at Newbury, before signing off for the the year with a third-place finish behind Mission Central on Champions Day at Ascot. That form looks strong, with the winner a legitimate contender for the King Charles III Stakes at Royal Ascot next week following successive Listed wins at Naas this spring, while Words Of Truth was last seen suffering an odds-on but narrow defeat at Meydan in March. Dropped to the minimum trip of five furlongs on his return to action in Europe he is saddled with a penalty, but with an official rating of 110 it will still be disappointing if he is unable to add to his tally in this company. Roger Varian's Raamsee has to be of huge interest in the Read Meg Nicholls' Blog At betmgm.co.uk Handicap. The Persian King gelding won a couple of low-key novice events on the all-weather last year, with a narrow debut success at Kempton followed by a 12-length demolition job in an admittedly weak affair at Newcastle. Confidence was evidently high for his handicap debut, seasonal reappearance and first start on turf at Sandown just over a fortnight ago and while favourite backers were ultimately left counting their losses, he over-raced on his first start since early September and was still beaten less than three lengths. With that run likely to have knocked the freshness out of him, he can reward those who keep the faith on his return to the Esher circuit. Johnny Murtagh has swerved Royal Ascot with Chicago Pope to take in the Churchill Tyres Supporting Macmillan Sprint Handicap at York and the hint should be taken. With #125,000 up for grabs and with it being for three-year-olds only, Murtagh does right and the Star spangled banner gelding is improving. Second on his reappearance over five furlongs at Cork, stepped up to six last time out he won a competitive handicap in fine style. He is 4lb higher now but is still on a decent mark The recent rain was just what Al Qareem would have wanted ahead of the Sky Bet Race To The Ebor Grand Cup Stakes. Karl Burke's seven-year-old has been a true star for his connections, winning the best part of #1million in prize-money through 13 wins and 12 other placed efforts. He was a clear-cut winner of this last year from Absurde, has already beaten his main market rival Mount Atlas on the same terms this season and the classy Gregory is having his first run for 476 days. Hugo Palmer's Stardom Glory may have bumped into a smart one on his debut and can go one better in the Tomahawk Restaurants Supporting Macmillan EBF Maiden Stakes. Chester punters should put their faith in Palmer's Tricky Tel in the John Smith's Handicap. The three-year-old - who is named after the father of part-owner and former England international striker Michael Owen - has already won twice on the Roodee and having added to his tally at Hamilton recently, he has an obvious chance again. A chance is also taken on first-time cheekpieces sparking Julie Camacho's Brummell back to life in the Saturday Social Handicap. A six-time winner, he outran his odds on his seasonal reappearance but was last of six last time, showing little enthusiasm. Now below his last winning mark, if he can get on the rail from stall four he may be hard to peg back.
