AGINCOURT TO WIN PIPALONG BATTLE

By Keith Hamer, PA

Agincourt can benefit from a drop in class to land a second career Listed success in the Weatherbys Bloodstock Pro Pipalong Stakes at Pontefract.

David O'Meara's battle-hardened mare was not disgraced when eighth in the Duke of Cambridge Stakes at Royal Ascot, having only been beaten a head in the Group Two last year.

The six-year-old has not graced the winner's enclosure since taking the Listed Rosemary Stakes at Newmarket in September 2019, though she was only beaten a nose by Illykato in similar company at Goodwood in May on her first start since the end of July.

Agincourt, who was also third in this race in 2019, has plenty of smart form and should prove hard to beat. Golden Apollo showed signs of a renaissance last time out and could be the answer to the King Richard II Handicap.

Rated 99 a few years ago after some fine efforts in decent handicaps, Tim Easterby's charge is without a win since taking the Silver Cup at Ayr in 2019, although he has had just nine runs since that victory.

Now on a mark of 86 - 2lb lower than his Ayr victory - Golden Apollo has taken a couple of runs to warm up this term but he was in the process of a fine effort at Thirsk when he just met a bit of trouble in running.

Golden Apollo still kept on well for third though, and a similar effort could be good enough.

Easterby should also be on the mark with Delgrey Boy, who can recoup losses for an expensive defeat over this course and distance recently in the Book Tickets Online At pontefract-races.co.uk Handicap.

The four-year-old was sent off the 8-11 favourite to defeat five rivals, but could not hold Lord Neidin, who edged the verdict close home.

Delgrey Boy can put things right this time. Velvet Vista can return to form in the bet365 Fillies Handicap at Brighton.

Things have not gone her way since she registered back-to-back victories at Yarmouth and Chelmsford in the spring.

Mike Murphy's five-year-old has since suffered defeats at Chelmsford and Kempton, but she was not helped by being slowly away on both occasions.

As long as she gets off on terms, Velvet Vista can make her presence felt. Aiguillette was slowly into stride at Yarmouth and that cost him victory last time, but he can make amends in the Each Way Extra At bet365 Handicap.

The Gary Moore-trained gelding failed by only a short head to peg back Cazeva Princess after coming with a strong challenge in the final furlong.

Thegreyvtrain rarely runs a bad race and can score for the third time this year in the Follow Us On Twitter @wolvesRaces Handicap at Wolverhampton.

Ron Harris' five-year-old mare, who was successful in March and April, looked like she was ready to return to winning ways when only beaten half a length in third place at Brighton three weeks ago.

Mr Sensible should appreciate the step up to a mile and a half to open his account in the Sky Sports Racing Sky 415 Handicap.

David Loughnane's four-year-old has shown bits of pieces in four starts from a mile to a mile and a quarter. His in-form trainer now steps the three-year-old colt up in trip for his first run in a handicap.

Ballyvic Boru looked an unlucky loser over two miles at Uttoxeter on his latest start but can put the record straight in the Nancy askerville Memorial Handicap Chase over the same course and distance.

Brian Ellison's charge was short of room at the final fence yet was only beaten a short head by Bathiva. Granted a clearer passage, Ballyvic Boru can get his head in front.
