NOTICE:
ANY BET TENDERED AFTER THE OFF TIME OF ANY RACE AS CERTIFIED BY THE AUTHORITY
UNDER WHICH THE RACE IS RUN AND INADVERTENTLY ACCEPTED BY ALL SEASON'S RACING SERVICE IS NULL & VOID AND ALL SUCH BETS WILL BE FULLY REFUNDED.

KEMPTON:

High numbers are best over 5f and preferable over 6f, while those drawn very low over 7f often have a bit to do. Otherwise, pace of races counts for a lot and this is one of the fairest courses around in that respect.

BEVERLEY DRAW:

A high draw used to be essential on good to soft or faster ground over 5f and also on the round horse, particularly in races of 7f 100yds and 1m100yds. However, things were far less clear cut last year, presumably down to watering. The course management experimented with moving stalls to the stands' side over 5f in 2002 (unsuccessfully, as it led to a huge low bias) and haven't done so since.

KING TO REIGN AT BEVERLEY

By David Clough, Press Association Sport

King Of Tonga can rule the roost on his seasonal return at Beverley.Richard Fahey's three-year-old grey was progressive in four juvenile starts last summer and resumes on a feasible footing in the Alan McGuinness And Robin Lunness Memorial Handicap.He has been gelded since he was last seen in public, when he failed to cope with a subsequent winner and was beaten into a half-length third as the 9-4 favourite at Chester in September.The runner-up that day has also won since, however, giving King Of Tonga's form a solid look in this promising but far from daunting company.Musharrif has already had the benefit of a recent run and has been dropped 11lbfor what was a largely encouraging return at Thirsk this month.He has an obvious opportunity to build on last season's progress, back to his preferred minimum trip in the Beverley Annual Badgeholders Handicap.In the closing Whistlejackets Craft Ale Bar Novice Auction Stakes, Mark Johnston's Oasis Prince ought to have fine prospects of defying his penalty after victory on his turf debut at Leicester.Andrew Balding remains in decent form and may have a decent evening at Chelmsford.Hero Hero faces some likely opposition representing high-profile connections in the Bet toteexacta At totesport.com Maiden Stakes.But the King Power colt made a fine start to his career when an eye-catching second on his Doncaster debut at the end of last season. He finished strongly once the message got through that day, indicating enough ability to get off the mark here.An hour later, Balding deploys Foxtrot Lady in the Betsi Conditions Stakes.It is a tough opening assignment, but she was a significant improver on the turf last summer and returns with useful credentials.Perth's April meeting is in full swing, and Theflyingportrait looks just the ticket in the GS Group Handicap Chase. Jennie Candlish's bold-jumping grey has conditions back in his favour after being highly-tried on unsuitable ground of late.He is back down 3lb for his latest vain attempt and will be much more at home in this environment.Piton Pete took advantage of the favourite's departure but was nonetheless a decisive winner at Carlisle last month and, up just 4lb, should be competitive in the Heineken UK River Tay Handicap Chase.At Warwick, back-to-form My Charity is ready to open his account.Graeme McPherson's gelding is better on this decent ground, as he showed when chasing home subsequent Graded hurdle and chase winner Secret Investor at Stratford this time last year.My Charity's forays over fences were emphatically unsuccessful at the start of this season - but he can strike in the racingtv.com Maiden Hurdle after an improved effort at Wetherby two weeks ago.Robin The Raven is back from a long break and will surely return to fences soon, but he can kickstart his summer campaign in style by winning the Like Racing TV On Facebook Handicap Hurdle.
