ELARQAM TO STRIKE SOVEREIGN GOLD

By Keith Hamer, Press Association Sport

Elarqam can start to make up for lost time with his first victory of the season in the Tattersalls Sovereign Stakes at Salisbury. For a colt that started the season with such lofty expectations, it can be said 2018 has been a disappointment. Little has gone to plan for the three-year-old from the time trainer Mark Johnston could not get a race into him before the Qipco 2000 Guineas. He ran creditably to take fourth place behind Saxon Warrior at Newmarket and hopes were high he would run even better in the Irish equivalent. His run was too bad to be true at the Curragh and he was found not to be quite 100 per cent afterwards. Trying him over a mile and a quarter at York did not quite work out, but it was only in the closing stages he was headed by Thundering Blue after making the
