THAT'LL DO NICELY FOR A KEMPTON WINNER

By Adam Morgan, PA

That'll Do Moss will do just nicely in the CopyBet Mares' Hurdle at Kempton. Fergal O'Brien's six-year-old has only once finished outside the top two in six appearances under rules, with her sole blip coming in a Cheltenham bumper early last season. Since then she has thrived when set some stern assignments over hurdles, beaten just a short head in the Grade Two Jane Seymour at Sandown in February, and was last seen chasing home Willie Mullins' well-regarded Aurora Vega in a Fairyhouse Grade One in the spring. A repetition of that run should be enough to win this Listed event and although others may have match-fitness on their side, That'll Do Moss is the class angle in the contest. There is quality across the card at the Sunbury venue, where David Pipe's Parchment could kick off proceedings in style in the opening Live Racing Streaming At CopyBet Juvenile Hurdle. A well-regarded winning recruit from France, he was a warm order for a slated UK bow in a Cheltenham Grade Two last Saturday before diverting here and it will be no surprise to see him make a real statement judged on his effort at Clairefontaine in the summer. Un Sens A La Vie is another hurdler of quality to note and Nigel and Willy Twiston-Davies' charge can regain the winning thread in the CopyBet Daily Profit Boost/EBF Stallions 'National Hunt' Novices' Hurdle. The winning graduate from the pointing field had racked up a pair of impressive Market Rasen victories at the start of his career under rules before seeing momentum checked at Cheltenham last month. However, back in grade and away from the undulations of Prestbury Park he should be much more at home and is backed to serve a reminder of his potential. All eyes will be on Nicky Henderson's Jeriko Du Reponet when he returns to fences in the CopyBet ``Chasing Excellence'' Beginners' Chase. The six-year-old was all at sea in his sole chasing appearance last term, but made up for perceived lost ground in the spring when going close at the Cheltenham Festival before striking at the Punchestown equivalent. A year wiser and toughened up by running in some competitive heats last term, it could be the case we now see the real Jeriko Du Reponet in a discipline which was always suggested would be his forte. Also making a return to the larger obstacles is Monmiral up at Ludlow. He had the misfortune of bumping into Jonbon on chasing debut back in 2022 and would fail to fully make his mark in five outings before making a successful fist of things back over timber. Now eight, Paul Nicholls' consistent operator landed the Pertemps at the Festival in 2024 and has regularly mixed it at a high level over timber, meaning he should be a cut above on this belated return to fences in the Tim Preece Timber Buildings Beginners' Chase. There is all-weather action in the north east, where Iain Jardine's Second Fiddle has proven anything but of late and can extend his track-and-trip winning run to five in the Read Meg Nicholls' Blog At betmgm.co.uk Fillies' Handicap. The synthetics are also in play at Wolverhampton, where Billy Loughnane has a fine book of rides and can get punters rocking aboard Oasis Cover in the Read Meg Nicholls' Blog At betmgm.co.uk EBF Restricted Maiden Stakes.
