Al Aasy can stamp his class on St Simon Stakes

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

The evergreen Al Aasy can help William Haggas extend his impressive record in the St Simon Stakes as the nine-year-old aims to add another Group victory to his CV at Newmarket. Haggas has the most successes in the Group Three contest over a mile and a half, with five triumphs in the 57-year race history and three wins since 2021. Long-time Somerville Lodge servant Hamish landed the honours in 2023 and 2025 – the latter as a nine-year-old – and Haggas looks towards another of his older guard for glory. Al Aasy has won three of his five starts this year, including the Grand Prix de Deauville and the Cumberland Lodge at Ascot and his experience and ability at this level looks too much for his rivals. In the preceding Irish Stallion Farms EBF 'Bosra Sham' Fillies' Stakes, Ed Walker's Siena Storm should appreciate the slight ease in grade and trip for the Listed contest over six furlongs. The daughter of Night Of Thunder has only got her head in front in one of her four career starts to date, in a novice at Salisbury in August before stepping up to Pattern company on her last two appearances. She was three lengths behind Light Of Dawn in the Prestige Fillies' Stakes when finishing fourth and although Siena Storm was fifth in the Oh So Sharp earlier this month, she was only one length behind the winner. Walker's juvenile should be hitting the line strongly on her first try at this distance. Kingston Narcissus can continue the winning machine of Harry and Dan Skelton in Bet Boost At bet365 Crossley Handicap Chase at Wetherby. The seven-year-old son of Authorized has had three runner-up finishes since switching to the champion trainer from Rebecca Menzies last spring, with the most recent of those coming in the Summer Plate at Market Rasen, beaten just a neck. He was making only his fourth start over fences on that occasion and can only improve further under the Lodge Hill handler. In the Listed Paul Ferguson's Jumpers To Follow Wensleydale Juvenile Hurdle, there is an interesting Irish runner in John Nallen's Minella Rockett. Nallen has gone an unconventional route with this New Bay gelding, with his sole hurdles run coming in the middle of a Flat campaign on home soil which kick-started a hat-trick of wins across both codes. Minella Rockett is in rude health and Nallen's decision to cross the Irish Sea with the three-year-old is a tip in itself. Hold The Serve's previous experience over fences will be key in the Kalahari King "Chasing Excellence" Beginners' Chase at Uttoxeter. Olly Murphy's six-year-old had a tough assignment on his chase debut when coming up against the Skelton-trained Kabral Du Mathan, whose taking victory at Perth saw him promoted to second-favourite for the Arkle at the Cheltenham Festival. Hold The Serve sets the standard this time around and should come out on top. On the all-weather at Newcastle, Adrestia can end her winless run stretching back to June 2025 for Simon Crisford in the Midnite A Next Generation Betting App Handicap.
