LIGHT SPEED LOOKS WORTH FOLLOWING AT LINGFIELD

By Anita Chambers, PA

Light Speed can chalk up his hat-trick in the BetUK. Home Of The Acca-Fenwa Handicap at Lingfield. Trained by Andrew Balding, the Mehmas gelding has now won two of his three career starts, having put an initial sixth at Southwell in October well behind him. Seven furlongs looked a bit on the short side first time up, but he clearly learnt plenty for the run, as he kept on well over that trip to score at the second time of asking before moving up to an extended mile.

Light Speed seemed to appreciate the extra distance as he won with a degree of authority that is perhaps not quite accounted for in his opening mark of 80. The dam's side of his family is all stamina so another leap to 10 furlongs here should not be an issue. Sea Me Dance found a new level upped to 14 furlongs and now she tackles two miles in the Boost Your Acca-Fenwa With BetUK Handicap.

She ran into some decent types on her two juvenile starts and has raced consistently over a mile and a half, but took another step forward at Wolverhampton last time when a convincing length winner. Her breeding suggests two miles should be within her compass.

Dashing Darcey is the pick in the second division of the Boost Your Acca At BetMGM/EBF Restricted Maiden Stakes. Sent off favourite on his Wolverhampton debut, the Muhaarar colt was pulled up not long after the start as his rider felt something was amiss.

He enjoyed a better run at the second attempt though, being beaten just a neck at Newcastle after a slightly slow start, and he should be up to winning a race of this nature.

Tiaraqueen can get off the mark in the Best Racing Odds Guaranteed At BetMGMEBF Maiden Stakes at Wolverhampton. William Haggas' runner was second at Kempton last month, posting a satisfactory introductory run when beaten just over a length by a rival with previous experience. She looked a bit green at stages so should be better for it.

Whatwouldyouknow has hit a bit of a purple patch and can continue to capitalise in the first division of the Bet #10 Get #40 At BetMGM Handicap. His confidence should be riding high after recently snapping a year-long losing streak, although he had hit the bar on a few occasions in the interim. Somespring Special can get back on track in the Racing Specials Every Day At Planet Sport Bet EBF Mares' Novices' Handicap Chase at Southwell.

Winner of two of her five hurdle spins, Anthony Honeyball sent her to Wincanton for her fencing bow but having cut out the early pace, she dropped away tamely and was pulled up, with the vet reporting she had lost a shoe. It is perhaps best to put a line through that form and try again.
