DORA MILAJE CAN WIN REDCAR BATTLE

By Nick Robson, PA

David O'Meara's Dora Milaje can defy top weight in the Sky Bet Go-Racing-In-Yorkshire Summer Festival Handicap at Redcar. In three career outings to date, she has shown she possesses above average ability and despite a defeat last time out, she still emerged with plenty of credit.

A homebred from Geoff and Sandra Turnbull's Elwick Stud, the daughter of the admirable campaigner Mondialiste won her only outing at Pontefract at two. She reappeared under a penalty at Thirsk in June where she beat a subsequent winner comfortably, proving she had a decent future.

O'Meara then sent her to Newmarket for her handicap debut and a marked step up in class for a 0-85, where for the majority of the race she looked set to remain unbeaten. She was caught in the dying strides and ended up third, but it was another hugely promising effort and she looks versatile having made nearly all on that occasion.

Adam West is not known for debut winners but Violets Star nearly caused a 150-1 shock for him at Thirsk last month. A 21,000 guineas buy from Tattersalls as a yearling, the daughter of Ardad is a distant relative of Pipalong, so it should not have been the biggest surprise she showed plenty of pace on her first start.

Unraced at two, she was up against several who had run before but she was right in there pitching until the final strides, losing by just half a length.The winner, Merry Minister, has since been well beaten at Ripon when clearly failing to handle the track, but the third has been placed again since and is rated 77, while the fourth won next time out.

That suggests the form can be trusted and the Redcar Cricket Club Restricted Maiden Stakes looks a weaker event, on paper at least. Connor Planas has made a big breakthrough this season and Ed Dunlop has snapped him up for the ride on Turner Girl in the Go Racing In Yorkshire Future Stars Apprentice Handicap.

Just touched off at Catterick last time out, Turner Girl would not be winning out of turn having been placed on all four outings this season. Donald McCain's Blueberry Wine races in the famous Red Rum colours and can get back to winning ways in the Rosemary Gasson Big Birthday Celebration Handicap Chase at Stratford.

A winner at Huntingdon and Aintree in the spring off lowly marks, he went down narrowly at Worcester when 11lb higher than for Huntingdon. Up another 2lb, life will be tougher but he looks the one to beat.

McCain's Titanium Moon is also favoured by the conditions up against Carrigeen Kampala in the Ladies Day Winners Novices' Hurdle. Second on his hurdling debut, he has won his next three and is rated higher than his main market rival, although they race off the same weight.

The Ollie Pears-trained Max Of Stars was second to the reopposing Hourless when they both had their first outings over hurdles at Hexham. Beaten eight and a half lengths, Max Of Stars then absolutely bolted up at Newton Abbot by 68 lengths, suggesting she had learned plenty from her debut run.

The pair meet on the same terms but that extra experience could prove vital in the Brendon Soper Memorial Juvenile Hurdle at Newton Abbot. Anthony Honeyball's Farouk De Cheneau will take all the beating on his hat-trick bid in the Racing Partnership Novices' Limited Handicap Chase.
