Mirabad can highlight another big day for Skelton

By Gideon Brooks, Press Association

Moving the BetMGM Haldon Gold Cup Handicap Chase from Exeter to Aintree has altered the test quite significantly given the differences in the tracks, but one horse who will not mind the switch is Dan Skelton's Mirabad. It is possible to say with some certainty that the seven-year-old would not have minded had it been held in Devon given he has winning form at Exeter, but there are not many in the field with their best form here on Merseyside. If he is able to repeat anything close to his six-and-a-half-length win from Salvator Mundi in a Grade One novice chase at the Grand National meeting last April, form which saw his handicap mark leap into the mid-150s, he will go close. Throw in that this race will be run on his favoured quick conditions around a sharpish, flat, left-handed track and he was a promising three-quarters of a length second behind Fighting Fifth-bound Wilful at Carlisle 15 days ago, he can put his best foot forward here. The Skeltons could be on target a couple of times earlier on the card including with Royal Infantry in the BetMGM 'Future Star' Silver Bowl 'Chasing Excellence' Novices' Chase as well if the gelding can build even slightly on a visually impressive reappearance effort at Hexham. While it is true that win came in a three-runner race and the chasing recruit was not extended to win at 4-11, there was an soundness in his jumping technique that suggested fencing has been his calling all along. It is hard to know whether the ex-French five-year-old Lyssenko has been clobbered or thrown in for the Read Meg Nicholls' Blog At betmgm.co.uk Handicap Hurdle but the fact Skelton has elected to go straight in at this level suggests they believe the €210,000 purchase will go well. Unbeaten in three hurdles, the gelding was increasingly impressive increasing his winning margin and hitting the line strongly. The stable have not had him that long but he has been bought for influential connections who are unlikely to have been sold a dud. Quaviste was bang there at the last before fading on the run to the line in a better grade behind Captain Hugo at Kelso at the end of his first season over hurdles and can complete a very good day for the Skeltons in the last. He starts out this season on the same mark of 113 and a similar performance could be enough to land the Gamble Responsibly At BetMGM Handicap Hurdle and complete a four-timer on the card. Diamond Mix has landed two handicap chases at Hexham off marks of 94 and 99. The seven-year-old gelding faces a 7lb higher mark on 106 but, on a first start for the shrewd Ewan Whillans team having left the retired Paul Robson, can land the the opening Sidgwick Memorial Conditional Jockeys' Handicap Chase at the Northumberland track. John and Thady Gosden are never afraid of sending a good horse to Newcastle and Endless Quest could be the latest. She has to carry a penalty in the All-Weather Championship Is Back EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes but the way she won on debut at Yarmouth suggested she is Pattern class. In pulling seven and a half lengths clear of the 70-rated Moontune when winning unextended, this looks a clear bid to grab more experience before some lofty targets next spring.
