Bank on Behike at York

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Behike is unbeaten over six furlongs and can maintain that record in the Starman At Tally Ho Stud Garrowby Stakes at York. The George Scott-trained colt was a three-length third in his only run as a juvenile over seven furlongs - to the smart Raaheeb no less - but it has been his three-year-old season where he has come into his own. Dropped back to six on his reappearance in April he coasted to a seven-length victory at Lingfield and followed it up when returning to the Surrey track a month later. The son of Night Of Thunder was stepped up to the highest level and dropped to the minimum distance for the King Charles III Stakes but came undone finishing down the field, five and a half lengths adrift of Mission Central. Having his sights lowered to handicap level in July, he was only beaten a short head by Dubai Bling after being collared on the line. But back at six furlongs across the Channel last month at Deauville he laid down his challenge a furlong out and ran on nicely to land the Listed Prix Moonlight Cloud by two lengths and can quickly double up on the Knavesmire. Harb is taken to complete a quickfire hat-trick in the Fine Details Car Valeting Sprint Handicap. The seven-year-old was was only beaten a neck by Thistle Nil at Hamilton but was quickly turned out at Beverley last weekend and duly obliged on testing ground, finding a gap three off the rail to put the race to bed 100 yards from home. He repeated the trick after being held up at Newcastle on Thursday and once shaken up ran on comfortably and despite going up in grade and being hit with an 8lb penalty for those two wins he can go in again. Empire Of Light can draw a line through his disappointing effort at York last time out and return to winning ways in the Saltmoore Collection Handicap. The Grant Tuer-trained five-year-old scored a hat-trick of victories at Chester, Haydock and Thirsk on ground ranging from good to firm to heavy but disappointed on the Knavesmire in June, finishing a well-beaten 15 of 16. Freshened up after a 85-day break the Kodiak gelding can return to the winner's enclosure. A bit of luck can see Woohoo put a severe spell of seconditis behind her dropped in grade for the Eboracum Security Handicap. The Jim Goldie-trained daughter of Acclamation has taken the silver-medal in each of her last six outings, but last time out looked to have put that unfortunate run behind when travelling smoothly but hanging left at the business end and eventually beaten two and a half lengths by Andrew Balding's Machadadorp. Over the jumps at Fontwell, No More Bolero can strike for trainer James Owen and jockey Harry Cobden in the Free Tips Daily On attheraces.com Handicap Hurdle, while Delulu should take all the beating in the Free Race Replays On attheraces.com Mares' Open National Hunt Flat Race for the Skeltons.
