Fleur can prove Mighty in Bangor feature

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

The Bowen family can enjoy another success together when the in-form Mighty Fleur bids to extend her winning streak to five in the Yorton Mares' Novices' Chase at Bangor. Mickey Bowen's string has been operating at a decent strike-rate in recent weeks, including a double at Sandown on Sunday, and will be buoyed by the form of the six-year-old daughter of Scorpion. Mighty Fleur started her winning thread at Fakenham and Cartmel over hurdles before her final start of the summer resulted in a four-and-a-half length triumph over fences at Uttoxeter. She returned at Worcester last month for a more docile victory by eight lengths which has seen her mark jump up 16lb from those two appearances over fences. All four successes came in the hands of champion jockey Sean Bowen – Mickey's brother – and despite a steep climb in grade to Listed class and step back in trip, Mighty Fleur should have too much for her rivals.

First Confession can add another winner for the in-form Joe Tizzard in the Weatherbys & Birdie Calendars Handicap Chase. He was last seen finishing midfield at the Cheltenham Festival, but he did win on his penultimate start at Carlisle to prove he likes fences. Placed efforts at Kempton and Carlisle help support that theory and with the Venn Farm string in fine fettle, First Confession can get his season under way with a victory. Grade Two handicap winner Charisma Cat makes her seasonal reappearance in the concluding Festive Meeting Saturday 28th November Handicap Hurdle. Alan King's six-year-old landed the Newbury event last March before finishing midfield on her last start in the Grade One Mersey Novices' Hurdle at the Grand National Festival. Charisma Cat returns to action in north Wales and can set the tone for her season with a strong performance. Nicky Henderson's Laguna Beach will get the firmer ground he wants for his chase debut in the opening Overton Handicap Chase. Largy Force has enjoyed a rich vein of form over the last 12 months and can maintain that in the Pricedup Novices' Hurdle at Warwick. The eight-year-old mare switched from Warren Greatrex to Olly Murphy last year and she has not been out of the first two in six starts for the Warren Chase handler. Three of those were victories and despite going over hurdles for the first time since April 2024, this could be a great way to ease her way into the campaign. Broadway Honey can make it five wins in six starts since September in the Hazelton Mountford Insurance Handicap Chase. Trained by Nigel and Willy Twiston-Davies, the six-year-old mare has been a revelation since going over fences and has seen her handicap mark go from 88 to 105 over the last two months and further improvement cannot be ruled out. She runs with a 7lb penalty on this occasion. North of the border, Jeriko Du Reponet can secure his first win over fences for Ben Haslam in the opening Coral 'Bet£5 Get£30 New Customer Offer' 'Chasing Excellence' Beginners' Chase at Ayr. The seven-year-old switched from Henderson's Seven Barrows stable to Haslam and was beaten by Royal Infantry at Hexham first time out for his new yard. Dan Skelton's horse has since won at Aintree so Jeriko Du Reponet can boost the form line for his new handler and get his chasing career up and running.
