Fillipas one to follow at Salisbury

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Fillipas can provide her connections with back-to-back victories in the Ire-Incentive, It Pays To Buy Irish Dick Poole Fillies' Stakes at Salisbury. Trainer Rod Millman and owners Middleham Park Racing teamed up to claim the Group Three prize with Anthelia 12 months ago and they look to have a good chance of repeating the feat with a filly who has already won over the course and distance. Fillipas ran a race full of promise when runner-up on her Bath debut behind Havana Sprite, who has since dead-heated in a Listed race and won a valuable nursery outright to earn herself a rating in the early 90s. Millman's juvenile was a bit disappointing at Newbury next time, but bounced back when opening her account and getting the better of an odds-on favourite and previous winner in Spirit Of Lyra at this venue two weeks ago. Fillipas has a bit to find on ratings with several of her rivals, but she remains open to improvement and should give a good account of herself if handling the softer ground in the hands of Colin Keane. Keane also looks a positive jockey booking for Hereward in division two of the Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai
