GET A FLYER AT WINCANTON

By Ashley Iveson, PA

Fire Flyer appears to have been found an excellent opportunity to open hisaccount over obstacles in division two of the Weatherbys nhstallions.co.ukNovices' Hurdle at Wincanton. The Paul Nicholls-trained six-year-old won an Ascot bumper on his racecoursedebut last season and while he was a little disappointing on his next start atNewbury, he has put together two excellent runs in defeat so far this term.Fire Flyer was done for a turn of foot by the classy Brechin Castle on hisreappearance in Listed company at Cheltenham in November, while there was nodisgrace in finishing second to another exciting prospect in subsequent GradeTwo winner Gidleigh Park on his hurdling debut at Newbury last month.He still looked a little course anddistance last month.An 8lb hike makes life tougher, but Take Your Time is clearly in rude a deserved win at Chepstow andwhile she has failed to add to her tally so far this winter, she has run threefine races in defeat.Heavy ground holds no fears for the seven-year-old and a slight ease in classcan do the trick in the Discover Golwg Gwendraeth At www.dandara.com Mares'Novices' Handicap Chase.Mumbles can notch his second win in the space of eight days in the Check OutGolgwg Gwendraeth At www.dandara.com Novices' Limited Handicap Hurdle.The Evan Williams-trained seven-year-old bolted up by 16 lengths at Chepstow last week and a 7lb penalty, less Conor Ring's 3lb claim, is unlikely to beenough to stop him following up if he turns up in the same form.Moonfire can make it third time lucky for Charlie Appleby on the all-weather atChelmsford.While not one of the Moulton Paddocks handler's brighter lights, the daughterof sprinting star Blue Point has shown enough in her two starts so far tosuggest a minor heat such as the New Holland Fillies' Novice Stakes is withinher grasp.She finished third as a hot favourite on her Wolverhampton debut in Novemberbefore filling the runner-up spot when upped up from six to seven furlongs atLingfield last month. Given how keen she was on the latter occasion, a return to the shorter trip isviewed as a positive move by connections.
