Flash of genius on the cards at Chepstow

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Soeur De Flash can open her account for the very much in-form Clive Cox in the Trade Centre Group Maiden Fillies' Stakes at Chepstow. The Lambourn handler enjoyed three winners on Saturday, highlighted by Coppull's big-race success in the Group Two Hungerford Stakes at Newbury, and Soeur De Flash looked a winner in waiting when finishing a close-up third on her Windsor debut a month ago. Despite looking a little clueless at times, the Ardad filly was only beaten half a length and looks to have been found an excellent opportunity to go a couple of places better in Monmouthshire. Avionics disappointed in Wales a couple of weeks ago, but is given another chance to prove his worth in the Bailey Family Investments/EBF Maiden Stakes. Andrew Balding's juvenile was fourth and second on his first two outings, so it was no urprise he was prominent in the market at Ffos Las time. However, he pulled fiercely under an inexperienced rider and was beaten nine lengths into sixth place. With Tom Marquand taking over in the saddle, he is expected to show his true colours this time. Rogue Exile may have been let in lightly by the assessor ahead of the Trade Centre UK Handicap. James Owen's youngster was second on his Yarmouth bow and went one better with a good front-running performance at Lingfield. He left the impression he was still learning on the job and an opening mark of 73 for his handicap debut could underestimate him. My Old Mate should complete his hat-trick for Gary and Josh Moore in the Free Tips On attheraces.com Handicap at Lingfield. The three-year-old looked pretty ordinary in the second half of last season and the first half of this, but he has found his groove recently, with a head defeat at Windsor followed by a couple of comprehensive wins at the same venue. Having fairly bolted up there last week, it is no surprise to see Moore turn his charge out quickly under a 6lb penalty and given that is offset by the 7lb claim of his rider Jude Fernandes - who has won on him before - he is difficult to oppose. Martin Keighley's Happier is in the same position ahead of division one of the Download The At The Races App Handicap. The Profitable mare has won her last couple of races comfortably and while she carries a 5lb penalty for her latest success, Keighley has booked 7lb claimer Toby Moore for her latest assignment. Evening all-weather fare comes from Wolverhampton, where Khepri is of interest in the Surestore Self Storage Fillies' Handicap. She has failed to get seriously involved in any of her three outings in maiden and novice company for Karl Burke over trips ranging from a mile and a quarter to a mile and a half. The American-bred filly now drops back to a mile for her first start in a handicap and has certainly been given a chance with a fairly lowly mark of 65, while the application of a visor might also bring about improvement.
