FORTY YEARS ON CAN PREVAIL AT NEWBURY

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Forty Years On bids to protect her unbeaten turf record and in the process bring more delight for George Scott when she makes a return from an extended break in the Ardonagh Group Handicap at Newbury. The four-year-old has shown herself to be a versatile filly with wins on both good and soft over seven furlongs and a mile, with her only two defeats from five starts coming on the all-weather, at Chelmsford at Southwell. She is a half-sister to Dance Diva who won a Listed Carlisle race so has the pedigree to excel at this level and was only beaten three-quarters of a length on her debut at Chelmsford. But it was when she turned her hand to the turf she really came into her own, with wins at Doncaster, Haydock and Ascot. She was only beaten a head by Maybe Not at Southwell last time out despite being unruly in the stalls and the winner has since gone on to win a valuable handicap at York to frank that form. She can make her return a successful one despite the 263-day absence. Sydney Rock is fancied to break her maiden tag when she enters handicap company for the first time in the Eddie Keogh Memorial Handicap. The daughter of Australia has finished second on all three of her career starts but the step up to a mile can help get her nose in front. Miss Scott accounted for Sydney Rock on her sole start to date and should keep her unbeaten record intact when she returns from a 262-absence in the Hmc Horse Boxes EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes. The John and Thady Gosden-trained daughter of Night Of Thunder was a comfortable scorer at Leicester despite running freely. Mythical Bay drops in grade and can make it count in the White Horse International Handicap. The three-year-old broke his maiden at Wolverhampton in January before being gelded and was then stepped up to a mile and a half and only beaten a length on his first outing of the turf season at Chester. He followed that up at Wolverhampton with a third place in a race won by Galilean Quality, having finished ahead of that one at Chester. Andrew Balding may have found the ideal spot for him down in class. Decade Of Time can follow up on his Windsor victory last month in the #9 Racedays At Nottingham Racecourse Novice Stakes. The Study Of Man colt caught the eye when third of 25 at long odds on debut at Newbury and then cashed in next time out at the Thameside track. The extra half a furlong should prove no issue for the Jack Channon-trained runner. Dan Skelton has already enjoyed 32 winners this National Hunt season at a strike-rate of 40 per cent and three of those were from Beorma who is taken to complete a four-timer inside 14 days in the CopyBet And Worcester Here All Year Novices' Handicap Chase.
