IT CAN PAY TO BE PRECISE AT GOODWOOD

By Anita Chambers, PA

Precise can make the trip from Ireland paid dividends with Group Three glory in the Virgin Bet Prestige Fillies' Stakes at Goodwood. Aidan O'Brien's charge made a promising start to her career when a three-quarter-length second over six furlongs on her debut, with the sprint trip looking a bit on the sharp side for a filly with a bit of stamina on her dam's side.

Upped to seven furlongs on her next start, Precise soon found the winning groove as she raced prominently and kept on all the way to the line to register a comfortable two-and-three-quarter-length verdict. She makes a relatively quick reappearance just 10 days later but she was certainly not all out in victory and the likely good ground should be perfect for this Group One-entered filly.

Jonquil looked a potential top-level performer when winning the Greenham at the start of the season, with the Juddmonte-owned colt subsequently going on to be beaten just a head by Henri Matisse in the French 2000 Guineas. With his owners also responsible for Field Of Gold, Jonquil dropped back to six furlongs for the Commonwealth Cup at Ascot rather than tackling the St James's Palace Stakes but the decision did not pay off as the Lope De Vega colt found the combination of fast ground and a sprint trip an impossible ask.

He was well fancied back up at seven furlongs in the Lennox at Goodwood, but that turned into a messy race as three went clear early, with Jonquil having far too much to do at the finish and eventually coming home fifth. The Virgin Bet Celebration Mile Stakes offers Andrew Balding's charge a perfect opportunity to get back on track. Chairmanfourtimes is the pick in the John William Phillips Memorial Nursery Handicap at Beverley. He has won once in five starts, displaying an incredibly consistent attitude in placing on each of the other four occasions too, most recently when third at York earlier this week. Races at the Ebor Festival are always ultra competitive and Adrian Keatley's took home a nice cheque for finishing a half-length third over six furlongs.

Back at the minimum trip here, Chairmanfourtimes can make it a profitable week. Law Of Average could be returning to form ahead of the Quinnbet Handicap at Yarmouth. Three times a winner last season, he has been well below that this term but following a gelding operation he showed a bit more promise when fourth at Beverley last time. He set a strong pace that day and just folded in the closing stages on the Westwood, but it was his best run for a while.
