RELY ON INTERNATIONAL GIRL AT RIPON

By Josh Luckhurst, PA

International Girl will target a second success of the season over course anddistance in the Wilmot-Smith Memorial Handicap at Ripon.Richard Fahey's six-year-old prevailed by a length and a quarter in June at theNorth Yorkshire track before finishing in midfield on her two ubsequent startsat York.The latter was a step up to Class Two level on the Knavesmire and a return to aracecourse where she has figures of second, fourth and first in threearrangements should benefit the mare as she drops slightly back in grade, withOisin Orr in the saddle. Miss Hathaway will hope to shed her maiden tag at the sixth time of asking inthe curtain-raising Irish Stallion Farms EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes.Tim Easterby's charge has been progressing nicely in her juvenile campaignwithout getting over the line, finishing with place honours on her last threestarts, including two runner-up spots.The latest second place came at York on John Smith's weekend, where she wasthree and three-quarter lengths behind the winner

Royalty Bay, who wassubsequently beaten by just a short head in a French Group Three at Deauvillerecently.Kodenza is worth backing to make it third time lucky in the ripon-races.co.ukBook Now For Saturday August 17th Novice Stakes.Also trained by Easterby, the three-year-old was a real eye-catcher on hisracecourse debut when staying on for third at big odds at Southwell and againshaped with promise when similarly coming up against a couple of fancied runnershere next time out.The son of Kodiak was unfortunate to lose a shoe that day but still did enough to suggest his turn is near.At Lingfield, Upscale has three-time champion jockey Oisin Murphy on board in abid to seal her maiden victory in the Get The Inside Track Withraceday-ready.com Novice Stakes.The daughter of Kingman was second to subsequent Oaks runner-up Dance Sequenceon her sole juvenile appearance and she needed her reintroduction at Doncasterin April before recording another runner-up effort at Haydock.Upscale was third of four at Chester last time out, but she now drops down ingrade, which could be just what is needed to see her in the winner's enclosurefor the first time.Carlisle's evening card is restricted to female jockeys and Gina Mangan cankick things off by partnering Biplane to victory in the Sara Gadd AppreciationHandicap.This admirable six-year-old mare claimed her sixth career success when stayingon strongly at Ayr recently and has a past history of putting together quickwins once hitting form.
