BAMBY WILL BE ALL THE RAGE AT PONTEFRAC

By Tony Kelshaw, PA

Rage Of Bamby fairly bolted up in a valuable handicap at York last month and looks well worth a step up into Listed class in the EBF Sky Bet Sunday Series Flying Fillies' Stakes at Pontefract. The four-year-old has been described as an enigma by connections and trailed in last of 13 on her seasonal debut at Bath back in April, but that was not the first time she had suffered a spring blip. It seems that a sounder surface in the summer months brings out the best in Eve Johnson Houghton's filly and that certainly proved the case when she bounced back to form on the Knavesmire following a 99-day break. Charles Bishop always had Rage Of Bamby well placed and she powered clear inside the final furlong to produce a career-best display.

Conditions should be similar again at Pontefract and there is no obvious reason why the daughter of Saxon Warrior should not follow up with another big run. Charlie Johnston's Dash Dizzy gets the nod on breeding in the Cure Leukaemia EBF ``Newcomers'' Maiden Stakes. The Wootton Bassett colt will carry the colours of ambitious owner Nurlan Bizakov and is a half-brother to four winners, including 2017 Norfolk and Phoenix Stakes victor Sioux Nation.

Zozimus has a big weight in the Sky Bet For The Fans Handicap but he was impressive over the same course and distance earlier this month, hitting the front at the furlong pole before coming away for a comfortable two-length victory.

Godsend was another to prevail on the same card, although he had to work much harder when rallying to beat Tailorman by a neck at odds-on to complete a hat-trick. Another 3lb rise up the ratings could make things tricky in a higher grade for the Sky Bet Build A Bet Handicap, but Sir Mark Prescott is as canny as they come with regards staying one step ahead of the assessor.

See That Storm showed plenty of promise when with Andrew Balding earlier this year and made a very encouraging first start for new trainer Ed Bethell at the end of last month. The three-year-old made all and kept on well to fend off the challenge of Princess Niyla, who had won the time before. Bethell's horses have been running with great consistency of late, so See That Storm is worth sticking with in the Sky Bet Extra Places Every Day Handicap.

Amo Racing four-year-old Walbank has always been well thought of by connections and showcased his talents with a smart success at Meydan in January, before disappointing next time. He returned from almost six months off with a nice fourth at Goodwood, when just tiring late on, and should strip fitter for the Sky Bet Request A Bet Handicap. At Southwell, Master Franca takes the eye in the opening Newark Advertiser Apprentice Handicap after an interesting effort at Chester last time out.

His jockey briefly lost an iron following an awkward start but then did well to get back into the race and kept on to finish fifth. It takes a leap of faith to stick with Path To Dubai after a couple of tailed-off efforts at Kempton and Doncaster either side of being gelded, but returning to Southwell could spark a resurgence.

James Tate's three-year-old struck here in a mile maiden on his racecourse debut in January and was a fine second to Attila The Honey on his handicap bow at this venue. If he can recapture that kind of form, a bold showing in the Woolley Bros. Wholesale Meats Handicap is on the cards, especially with Tate's yard in decent spirits.
