EXPECT TO REACH THE DIZZY HEIGHTS AT ASCOT

By Anita Chambers, PA

Dash Dizzy can surprise some better fancied rivals in the eventmasters.co.ukCommonwealth Cup Trial Stakes at Ascot.Charlie Johnston's charge is a Wootton Bassett half-brother to Group One-winning juvenile and stallion star Sioux Nation, and he certainly shapedwih promise on his racecourse bow when beaten six lengths in third atPontefract in August.The form of that run took on a pleasing look when the winner, Powerful Glory,went on to land the Mill Reef but Dash Dizzy was handed a much easier task inwinning a Kempton novice in September.Johnston felt suitably emboldened to leap up to Group One company for theMiddle Park and while Dash Dizzy was over five lengths behind Shadow Of Light inthird, he was only a length and a half behind Prix Morny victor Whistlejacket.Dash Dizzy was clearly picking up momentum at the end of the term and if he cantake that level of progress into his three-year-old campaign, he could be underrated with all ground seemingly suitable for him.The Longines Sagaro Stakes can go to Coltrane for a third successive year.Andrew Balding's eight-year-old was an easy victor in 2023 but was made to workfor his win last year, fending off Caius Chorister by a head in what proved tobe the highlight of his season.While not disgraced when fifth in the Gold Cup and third in the Prix du Cadran,Coltrane is a way short of star stayer Kyprios, but he should not need to be athis very best here with upwards of 10lb in hand on each of his three rivals. Sardinian Warrior can make a seamless transition to turf and chalk up a fourthstraight win in the eventmasters.co.uk Paradise Stakes.Beaten at the first attempt in 2023, the Saxon Warrior colt has not looked backsince, winning three times at Southwell, most recently when beating a fineyardstick in Silver Sword, with subsequent All-Weather Championships Mile winnerStorm Star back in third.The Gosden-trained runner has a bit to find on the ratings with the likes of Docklands but will he might be short of the top level, this Listed heat shouldbe a good test. Partisan Hero is the pick as he makes a quick return to Pontefract for the NarsSupports The NHC Handicap.He has gone up a total of 10lb since December after winning his last twostarts, on the Kempton all weather and then at this course at the start ofpril.Partisan Hero made all for a length-and-a-quarter victory on that occasion andperhaps still had a shade in hand at the line.At Punchestown, Galopin Des Champs can atone for his Cheltenham defeat in heLadbrokes Punchestown Gold Cup while Honesty Policy can get the better ofFestival victor Jasmin De Vaux in the Channor Real Estate Group Novice Hurdle.
