WOLVERHAMPTON:

A low draw is a big advantage over 5f20yds and 5f216yds, and low to middle is preferable over 7f32yds. Beyond that it doesn't seem to matter, although it is never a good idea to race too wide on the home bend, as those that do rarely seem to make up the ground.

DONCASTER DRAW:

There's been very little between the two sides since the course re-opened. Jockeys now tend to swerve the stands' rail (high) on good or slower ground, instead preferring to head for the centre.

TAKE TOP TO TRIUMPH IN FLAT FINALE

Top Tug can make his experience count and claim victory in the Betfred November Handicap at Doncaster. The mile-and-a-half contest is the traditional feature as the curtain comes down on the Flat turf season on Town Moor and another maximum field of 23 runners will go to post. The unexposed Royal Line is likely to be popular with punters as he bids to provide John Gosden with a record sixth victory, but a mile and a half on soft autumnal ground will be a decent test and at more rewarding odds, the ultra-consistent Top Tug is preferred. Formerly trained by Sir Michael Stoute before joining Alan King in the spring of 2016, the six-year-old chestnut has won four times on the level and once over hurdles overall. The son of Halling has enjoyed another fine season, adding to his tally at Goodwood and most recently finishing a fine second under a big weight at Leicester. The winner that day, Dance The Dream, also lines up at Doncaster, but Top Tug is marginally better off at the weights and is capable of reversing the form. Teruntum Star can continue his progression in the Betfred Mobile Wentworth Stakes. Kevin Ryan's sprinter has really flourished in the second of the season, following up narrow verdict at Ripon with an authoritative display in a lucrative event at York last month. He has more on his plate stepped up to Listed class, but he is clearly in the form of his life and with give in the ground not an issue, he looks a sound betting proposition. Vintage Folly has only made the track on three occasions in 2017, meaning she is fresher than most heading into the Betfred TV EBF Stallions Breeding Winners Gillies Fillies' Stakes. The twice she has encountered soft ground she has finished second to Shutter Speed in the Musidora at York and most recently found only Irish challenger Beautiful Morning too strong in a Listed heat at Yarmouth. Vintage Folly's current perch of 102 sets the standard on Saturday and with further improvement far from inconceivable, she should be hard to beat. Cheltenham Festival hero Flying Tiger gets the nod in the Unibet Elite Hurdle at Wincanton. The Nick Williams-trained youngster won the Fred Winter at Prestbury Park last March before having his limitations exposed a shade by star juvenile Defi Du Seuil at Aintree. He heads into this Grade Two handicap with a fitness advantage over some of his rivals, having performed with plenty of credit when fifth in Ascot's Cumberland Lodge Stakes little over a month ago. Williams has been among the winners in the last couple of weeks, which is encouraging, and Flying Tiger should give us a good run for our money. Southfield Theatre merits respect in the Badger Ales Trophy. It is three years since the Ditchheat inmate won the Rising Stars Novices' Chase on this card and he has not been seen in competitive action since last December, but he does not look badly treated on his best form.
