Noble Exhibit can extend Aidan O’Brien’s Futurity Trophy dominance

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Noble Exhibit is difficult to oppose as he bids to continue Aidan O’Brien’s dominance of the William Hill Futurity Trophy at Doncaster. A third-place finish on debut behind the useful Monogram offered plenty of hope for the future and the son of Frankel has duly delivered, with a wide-margin victory at Punchestown followed by an assured success in the Beresford Stakes.

Saratoga Springs (1997), St Nicholas Abbey (2009), Saxon Warrior (2017), Luxembourg (2021) and Hawk Mountain (2025) all won that Group Two prize before striking gold in the final Group One of the season in Britain, so Noble Exhibit is following a tried-and-tested route. Karl Burke’s Royal Lodge runner-up Burning Up and William Muir and Chris Grassick’s Champagne Stakes third Breacher both promise to be suited by a mile on easy ground, but Noble Exhibit is expected to prove too strong and almost certainly ensure O’Brien is crowned British champion trainer for a ninth time.

The Ballydoyle handler also has a major contender for the William Hill Remembering Sue Wright Prospect Stakes in runaway Naas winner Bengal Tiger, but preference is for his fellow Irish raider Hi Corbett Court. Paddy Twomey’s juvenile looked fairly ordinary after his first three starts, but he bolted up on his handicap debut at Sligo in early August and then pushed stablemate Trean close in the Goffs Million.

While sales race form can sometimes be difficult to quantify Trean is a high-class operator, as proved by his previous good efforts in the Acomb and National Stakes and he was recently second in the Group Three Killavullan Stakes at Leopardstown. Stepping back from seven to six furlongs on Town Moor, Hi Corbett Court must have every chance of claiming a Listed success.

National Honour looks well placed to complete his hat-trick for Charlie Appleby in the Rfj and Bee Jays Electrical Nursery Handicap. The son of Wootton Bassett was beaten into second as a hot favourite for his Newmarket debut, but he has since recouped those losses with wins at Thirsk and Kempton. The runner-up from the latter race, Solar Swing, has since opened his account at Wolverhampton and National Honour does not look badly treated ahead of his switch to handicap company.

Nigel and Willy Twiston-Davies have made their usual strong start to the autumn and can add to their tally at Cheltenham with Spectacularsunrise in the opening William Hill Epic Boosts Novices’ Limited Handicap Chase. While the six-year-old won a bumper and twice from seven attempts over hurdles, the six-year-old always looked likely to make up into a better horse over fences and he made a fine start when winning comfortably at Perth last month. A 5lb rise looks more than fair and he has a race fitness advantage over some of his key rivals.

Jonjo and AJ O'Neill are another father-son partnership in good form and they will be hoping Mt Fugi Park can extend his winning streak in the £100,000 William Hill Best Odds Guaranteed Handicap Chase. The eight-year-old has struck up a good relationship with 5lb claimer Benjamin Macey, winning his last two starts at Worcester and Uttoxeter, and he should go well again despite a big weight.
