Old Park picked to star at Cheltenham

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Old Park Star can make a winning start over fences in the Paddy Power Arkle Challenge Trophy Trial Novices' Chase. The six-year-old maintained a 100 per cent record over the smaller obstacles for Nicky Henderson since switching from Paul Nicholls following an unsuccessful three-race stint in bumpers for the Ditcheat handler. The Gordon and Su Hall-owned gelding made a winning start at Kempton last November before following up with bloodless victories at Cheltenham and Haydock. That set up the son of Well Chosen for the Supreme Novices' Hurdle at the Festival and he duly delivered, coming home one and a half lengths clear of the field at Prestbury Park. Henderson will now turn his attention to the larger obstacles with the Arkle the ultimate aim back at the Festival in March and while this is anything but an easy introduction, he is taken to get the better of market rival Kabral Du Mathan. Meetmebythesea has not been seen last year's Festival but he can defy a 247-day lay-off in the Paddy Power Gold Cup Handicap Chase. The six-year-old is three from four over fences, with his only defeat coming when a well-beaten last of six in Newbury's Game Spirit Chase when it was not his day on ground he did not act on, so a line can clearly be drawn through that run. Previous to that he won well at Wetherby and Ayr before bouncing back from that off-day in Berkshire with an eyecatching win in the Jack Richards in March, where stepping up to two and a half miles on a sound surface proved just the ticket. Ben Pauling's charge has been raised 12lb for that taking success but he has a bit of class and might be able to overcome it. Charles Darnay caught the eye on his jumping debut at Wetherby and can back that up in the JCB Triumph Trial Juvenile Hurdle. The three-year-old won two of five starts on the Flat before the James Owen-trained son of Planteur was switched to the winter game. Despite jumping badly to his left early on in the Wensleydale Juvenile Hurdle in West Yorkshire, he got his act together to hit the front two out and produced his best jump at the final flight, keeping on well to win by three and a quarter lengths. Elegantemente made an immediate impact on her debut at Ballinrobe and make it two from two in the Listed Karndean Designflooring Mares' Open NH Flat Race. The four-year-old pulled away nicely to win by six lengths at the County Mayo track and looks the class act in the field for Henry de Bromhead. Kildinan Prince steps into handicap company in the Fitzdares Telephone & Text Betting Handicap Hurdle at Windsor. The Emma Lavelle-trained seven-year-old was beaten only a head on debut for Jonathan Sweeney at Tipperary before moving to Lavelle's Ogbourne Maizey operation. He was second at Ascot stepped up in grade but dropped back down at Exeter to win at three-runner affair at odds of 1-25.
