COEDANA CAN STRIKE FOR BETHELL

AT PONTEFRACT

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Ed Bethell's Coedana sets the standard in the Pontefract Castle Fillies' Stakes. The King Of Change filly has made big strides since winning a couple of races on the all-weather in September, this season picking up minor honours in two stakes races on the grass. She was beaten just over a length by Tattycoram on her reappearance at Goodwood and actually bettered that effort when third in the rescheduled Lester Piggott Stakes at Carlisle in late May, finishing behind top-class grey Estrange and the the 107-rated Waardah at Group Three level. With a revised mark of 103, Coedana is the highest-rated filly in this Listed event and can claim a deserved victory. Clash Of Hearts should open his account at the third time of asking in the opening Pontefract Races Autism In Racing EBF Novice Stakes. Trainer Adrian Keatley has unearthed a few talented juveniles over the years and this son of Mehmas looked another promising recruit after filling the runner-up spot on his debut at York's Ebor Festival. He was then pitched in at the deep end in Beverley's Two Year Old Trophy but emerged with plenty of credit in finishing third behind a couple of previous course winners in Matteo and Ronson. A reproduction of that run may well be enough to see Clash Of Hearts break his duck in West Yorkshire and there should still be some improvement in the locker. Goyard has been given a little relief by the handicapper and can profit in the Ponte Premiership Points Mean Prizes Handicap. David O'Meara's charge won back-to-back races at Ripon last summer but subsequently struggled to make a major impact in a couple of sprint handicaps. However, he is still lightly-raced following just five lifetime starts and having been dropped a couple of pounds ahead of his reappearance, he is fancied to get his season off to a winning start. The Jedd O'Keefe-trained Trojan Soldier is on a four-timer in the Moor Top Farm Shop Hemsworth Pontefract Cup Handicap. The four-year-old has been excellent since being stepped up to staying trips, with a couple of narrow defeats on the all-weather followed by a hat-trick of wins. He bolted up at Pontefract a month ago and a 5lb rise for that latest win looks more than fair. Danehill Star can finally claim a first win on turf in the Fairplay Daily Price Boosts Handicap at Brighton. Tony Carroll's inmate has won six times on the all-weather and while success on the grass has proved elusive, he has not been beaten far on his last couple of outings at Bath, suggesting his turn is not far away. He is only 2lb above his last winning mark and the jockey booking of Billy Loughnane is clearly a positive. Champion trainer Dan

Skelton sends a small team on the long trip north to Hexham and can strike with his first runner of the afternoon Loman Lady, who makes a swift return to the picturesque Northumberland circuit for the Chris Lowther & Brian Ellison 28 Years Maiden Hurdle. A relatively inexpensive Irish point-to-point recruit at #10,000, the five-year-old gave her new connections an immediate return on that investment when winning a bumper at Hexham just eight days ago and she has every chance of following up on her hurdling debut.
