All Season’s Racing Service has introduced yet another Place – 6 Betting System in the form; PL-1, PL-2 & PL-3 etc. You may choose any of the PL races to play your Place – 6 bets but PL-1 cannot be mixed with PL-2 nor PL-2 cannot be mixed with PL-3 etc. Any such bets will be refunded.

NOTE:

We will no longer be accepting any One by Two (1x2) Bets. However you could have more Wins than Place Bets. (No more Place than Win). Also we will not be paying on 5th place any more only on special races.

CITY SLICKER SHOULD ECLIPSE SANDOWN FIELD

By Anita Chambers, PA

City Of Troy will not be any sort of price for the Coral-Eclipse but if in the same form as last time, he is impossible to oppose. It was a huge shock when Aidan O'Brien's champion juvenile trailed home ninth, beaten 17 lengths, in the 2000 Guineas, surrendering his unbeaten record in the tamest of fashion as he dropped right back through the field in the final couple of furlongs. The Justify colt was very keen that day and O'Brien felt he had sent his star to Newmarket short of his best, an opinion that was totally borne out at Epsom. While keen again, Ryan Moore managed to get him settled from an unfavourable draw in stall one and he could be called the winner from some way out in the premier Classic. The fact he took some time to pull up after cruising to a near three-length win suggests City Of Troy had plenty in reserve and although that could mean he will not be suited by dropping back to 10 furlongs, his change of gear was sublime and the presence of stablemate Hans Andersen will make sure they do not hang about. Live In The Dream perhaps has something to prove in the Coral Charge after a short-priced Haydock defeat last time out. Winner of last year's Nunthorpe, Live In The Dream posted a fine second on his seasonal bow in the Temple Stakes on ground that was not ideal, but it was a surprise when he could trail home only fifth in the Listed Achilles Stakes subsequently. After appearing to stumble at the start, Live In The Dream did manage to assume his usual position at the head of affairs but his race was run over a furlong out and he dropped away in the finish. Adam West felt his troubled start took its toll, so it is worth keeping the faith. Classic can turn around recent form with Two Tempting in the Coral Challenge. After finishing last on his return at Sandown in May, Richard Hannon's charge went down by just a head to his reopposing rival over the same mile he faces here. He might have been a bit unlucky as he came from the back of the field and a 11lb rise should not prove too much of an issue. Regal Jubilee was another who did not enjoy an ideal run on her most recent spin. Second in the Fred Darling first time up, John and Thady Gosden felt she merited a shot at Classic glory in the 1000 Guineas but that proved beyond her and she came home a well-beaten 10th. Dropped back to Listed company and upped to 10 furlongs at Goodwood, she found only Francophone too good after struggling for a run with a couple of furlongs to go. Given she was conceding 3lb, her three-quarter-length defeat deserves marking up ahead of the Coral Distaff. Tiffany can make a quick leap to Group Two glory in the bet365 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock. She really came of age at Newcastle last week when registering an impressive success in the Group Three Hoppings Stakes, having previously struck twice at Listed level in Germany. Moving back to turf is obviously not a concern and she comes here in clearly excellent form for Sir Mark Prescott. Maghlaak can gain redemption for a Redcar defeat in the bet365 Old Newton Cup Handicap. Contesting the Zetland Gold Cup, he had to race wide and never really got into a decent position so his defeat as favourite can be forgiven.
