ABSURDE TO IGNORE MULLINS AT PLUMPTON By Tony Kelshaw, PA

Willie Mullins is going all out for success in the BetGoodwin Sussex Champion Hurdle at Plumpton and Absurde is rated the pick of his four entries. The Closutton maestro is fighting it out with Dan Skelton to retain his trainers' title, so it is no surprise to see him target this #75,000 handicap. Absurde had reopposing stablemate Daddy Long Legs in behind when an excellent third in the County Hurdle at Cheltenham, a race he won in fine style 12 months previously. Last month's outing was his first since finishing fifth in the Melbourne Cup, so the seven-year-old will still be fresh enough to go again and Harry Cobden should prove an ideal partner. Plumpton's tight turns can put hold-up horses at a disadvantage but Cobden has a good strike-rate there, so will be well aware of what is required and the uphill finish can help Absurde to race ahead on the run-in. Gary and Josh Moore always have to be respected at their local track and Havaila is a form pick for the BetGoodwin Master Trainer Chris Gordon Handicap Chase. The six-year-old has scored at Lingfield and this venue since the turn of the year and battled on well to finish second at Newbury last time out. Joe Tizzard's Siam Park can complete a hat-trick in the BetGoodwin Top UK Online Bookie Handicap Chase. He was always doing enough when prevailing by a neck at Taunton and then showed a really likeable attitude to follow up at Stratford. At Bath, the first five from last year's Whitsbury Manor Stud/British EBF Lansdown Stakes renew rivalry and preference is for Electric Storm, the runner-up from 12 months ago. James Tate's mare was making just her third racecourse appearance that day and went on to land a Listed contest at Haydock before being placed in a trio of Group Three races. With her stable having made a strong start to the turf season, the five-year-old ticks all the right boxes. There is Grade One action over in Ireland at Fairyhouse, where it is back to Mullins again with Champ Kiely in the WillowWarm Gold Cup. This former high-class novice hurdler has returned from a lengthy lay-off this term and taken well enough to fences, scoring at this track and Navan either side of finding things tough at the Dublin Racing Festival. The Irish Stallion Farms EBF Honeysuckle Mares Novice Hurdle features a rematch between the first two home in Cheltenham's equivalent event and Sixandahalf is aken to gain revenge over Air Of Entitlement. Gavin Cromwell's charge looked all over the winner at Prestbury Park approaching the last but was reeled in late on. Some will expect an extra three furlongs to suit Air Of Entitlement, but Keith Donoghue has the nous to adjust and deliver his challenge at the right time.
