GO DANTE TO DELIVER IMPERIAL HAT-TRICK By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Go Dante is expected to put up a bold show in his bid for a record third victory in the Betfair Imperial Cup at Sandown. Olly Murphy's veteran has claimed the feature event on the Saturday before the Cheltenham Festival in each of the past two seasons, beating Faivoir by a nose in 2024 and the reopposing Wreckless Eric by half a length 12 months ago. He again showed his liking for the Esher circuit when landing another valuable pot here in December and is only 2lb higher as he looks to make it four from four at the course this weekend. Go Dante has disappointed on his last couple of starts at Windsor and Newbury, on both occasions struggling to lay up with the early pace on speed tracks, but he has undergone wind surgery since and at double figure odds he merits another chance back on terrain that clearly brings out the best in him. Murphy and champion jockey Sean Bowen will also have high hopes of landing the European Breeders' Fund Betfair 'National Hunt' Novices' Handicap Hurdle Final with the fast-improving Scorpio Rising. Third on his first couple of starts, the Jukebox Jury gelding has since rattled off a hat-trick with wins at Perth, Lingfield and Windsor. He defied an 8lb rise when scoring comfortably on his latest outing and has another 7lb to contend with in this #80,000 contest, but he handles soft ground well and there is every chance the assessor has not caught up with him just yet. Millstatt Abbey gets the nod in the British Stallion Studs EBF Mares' Standard Open National Hunt Flat Race. Bought for E100,000 after finishing second in an Irish point-to-point last spring, the five-year-old gave the Noel Fehily Racing team an immediate return on that significant investment when bolting up on her bumper debut at Uttoxeter on New Year's Eve. The runner-up Rainbow Tara did not do much for the form when disappointing at Newcastle earlier in the week, but nevertheless Millstatt Abbey looks an exciting prospect and is well worth a shot at this Listed event. Primoz is rated the best bet of the afternoon at Ayr for the training partnership of Lucinda Russell and Michael Scudamore. The Kinross team has not been firing all cylinders this winter, but there have been definite signs of a revival in last couple of weeks. Primoz, who was rated as high as 132 at one stage, is one of those who failed to run up to his best earlier in the season, but a recent third-placed finish at Newcastle was a step in the right direction. He has won twice over hurdles at Ayr and running off a mark of 122 against a handful of horses who are not in the best form, the Ayrshire Handicap Chase looks an excellent opportunity for him to get back on the winning trail. Western General can give weight and a beating to his rivals in the Check Out Fairplay's Cheltenham Offers Handicap Chase at Hereford. A previous winner over the course and distance, Joe Tizzard's charge looked to be losing his way before having a wind operation early in the new year which appears to have had the desired effect judged on an all-the-way success at Chepstow last month. A 5lb rise for that win looks more than fair and he is expected to follow up. The best of the all-weather action comes from Wolverhampton, where Cool Hoof Luke is backed to claim Listed honours in the BetMGM Lady Wulfruna Stakes. The 2024 Gimcrack Stakes winner returned from a year and a half on the sidelines with a very creditable third behind the high-class Diligent Harry in the Kachy Stakes at Lingfield in late January and provided the dreaded bounce factor does not take effect, he looks the one to beat under Oisin Murphy.

SELECTIONS:

SANDOWN: 1.15 The Bellhop, 1.50 SCORPIO RISING (NAP), 2.27 Go Dante,
3.00 Millstatt Abbey, 3.35 Calimystic, 4.10 Soldierofthestorm, 4.45 Toothless.
