SHOWME THE MONEY

By Chris Wilson, Press Association Sport

Team Showme has a fighting chance of taking top honours when she runs beneath the Newcastle floodlights. Michael Dods' filly did next to nothing in her first three career starts, but she certainly looked a different proposition on her handicap debut. Team Showme was sent off a 14-1 chance in a six-furlong handicap at Southwell and always looked up against it following a tardy start. But the daughter of Harbour Watch suddenly realised what the game was all about and flew home inside the final furlong. Team Showme ended up finishing second, beaten three and a half lengths by Precious Silk, which was a non-too-shabby effort given how the race panned out. The three-year-old has one of the more attractive profiles in this six-furlong apprentices' handicap, while it is good to see the gifted Callum Rodriguez back in the saddle as he did the steering at Southwell. Having been left untouched by the assessor off a mark of 52, it is hard to envisage Team Showme regressing now that she has finally come to the boil. Keep close tabs on Mr Potter, who runs in division one of the one-mile handicap. Richard Guest's chestnut has been in patchy form since he last won a race off a 21lb higher mark last September.
